

The Reverend Tony

January 4, 2005

Only one certain way exists of predicting the outcome of a big college football game like the OU-Southern Cal match tonight. And those of you who have attended the OU-Texas game in Dallas have seen The Turkey Leg Paradigm™ in practice,

The Turkey Leg Paradigm™ is that the team that will win has the most fans eating turkey legs prior to the game which explains why OU has owned UT since 2000 because with the price of natural gas over $3.00 an Okie dad can afford to take all of the family to the game and buy each one a turkey leg. With natural gas under $3.00 he can't take everyone and some have to share a turkey leg which improves UT's chances because many of their fans prefer health food before the game like a corn dog and flask of vodka then whack a frog on the Midway.

It does not take a graduate from Yale to figure out that any fan who makes a conscious decision to buy turkey legs for his entire family's pregame meal, his team should be feared on the football field.

Which is exactly why I had a bad feeling last year before OU's game in the Sugar Bowl game with LSU because Tiger fans will eat all kinds of leg looking things that you probably would not want identified if you know what I mean.

So The Turkey Leg Paradigm™ has my Sooners pitching a 100-0 shut-out because I cannot imagine any SC fan who would even think of eating a turkey leg, unless it was raw and served as sushi with a spicy plum sauce and a dry Chardonnay which is not a bad presentation.

February 18, 2005

Bon jour mes amis,

Tonight I will have Motorola Marathon photos of, among others, our Guv Monsieur Rick the tiger, madman Wade the Dragon, adorable Cindi the horse, Jeff the rat, etc. and the proceeds from the auction not to publish these photos will benefit The Reverend Tony's Home for Unwed Entertainers. Bidding is in $ 20 increments, Le Rev will provide margs and you will be overserved.

The Auction begins about 8:00 or just after Mo serves up some Rik Perry dip and papas menor. Jusque-là, Le Reverend Tony, still south of freedom

February 28, 2005,

The Reverend Tony now divines movie reviews without ever having seen the movie. Would you like to know more? Visit TheReverendTony.com and read the reviews for this week's big releases Be Cool and The Pacifier. Ciao, The Reverend Tony (aka Walker Arenson, Austin, TX)

March 4, 2005

Join the Lady Claire and me tonight for the unveiling of my latest scam Happy Horse Racing™ a crossover game for slot machine players to semi-enjoy the horse racing going on at the track right behind them. Also a great game to play at your next Kentucky Derby Day party.

So bring your ladies in pretty hats and lets sip on a few tasty margaritas while you invest in Happy Horse Racing™. Onward, TRT

March 11, 2005

Greetings,

Susan and Claude DuCloux will not be with us tonight as they are on a pilgrimage to the birthplace of The Reverend Tony, that being the Royal Sonesta on Bourbon Street where they will also be having much monkey sex.

What the DuClouxes do not know is that TRT PPV has arranged for a hidden camera in their room so we can broadcast them live while the sex is actually happening, Claude slipped to me that Susan likes to "exercise" before dinner and they have reservations at 9:30 so you can do the math.

Please join The Lady Claire and me tonight at Matt's for margs and the live close-circuit broadcast. Pregame begins at 7:30 pm. Power to the people, The Reverend Tony PS - Admission is only $19.95 and all net* proceeds benefit the Michael Jackson Pajama Fund. Don't you just know that Scott Lee Peterson wishes he would have worn PJs to Court!

Movie Review - Robots - 2 stars at most because Robin W and Mel B Daily Tripled but it is only 90 minutes. Take the kids and the iPod.

March 18, 2005

Greeting and felicitations,

Tonight we celebrate the 21st birthday of Doug Wehmeier who I literally held in the palm of my hand while watching Phi Slamma Jamma lose to Georgetown in the NCAA basketball tournament finals. One of The Reverend Tony's many relics will be on display, the Little King™ cream ale with a blue ribbon which has been in my refrigerator ever since Doug's birth when his dad Rik passed them out instead of cigars.

The Bush Administration has just retained The Reverend Tony to help promote the beauties of the Administration's latest scam, Personal Investment Social Security Accounts or PISSAs.

You will have an opportunity to become one of the first to purchase a PISSA annuity, underwritten by Abuja Mutual Life and Annuity, backed by the full faith and credit of Niger, AND personally guaranteed by Nigerian Finance Minister Ngozi Okonjo-Iweala (see TRT 8-25-2004, PlaciBox™ "The Magenta Pill - It Cures Everything!™" receives FDA approval), Adieu, TRT

PS - As most of you know, the PPV event last week did not come off as planned mostly because the DuClouxes did not visit New Orleans until this weekend. It will not be rescheduled!

March 25, 2005

There's a FULL MOON out tonight and The Reverend Tony feels like howling especially because I have been watching FOX network all week, just trying to be fair and balanced.

And by the way, if The Reverend Tony ever becomes a vegetable, I would prefer to be known as celery and instead of a g-tube in the belly, I would prefer an IV of Matt's margs so a I can pass with a smile on my face and scurvy free.

On Ward, The Reverend Tony

April 1, 2005

Greetings and felicitations,

Spring is finally here and that means Daylight Savings Time begins Sunday so please remember to set your clocks back one hour before going to bed Saturday night.

Otherwise nothing much on the humor front this week what with all the death stuff but The Reverend Tony was reminded of the parable of The Three Blondes Who Died On Easter.

Three blondes died in a tragic car accident on the way to Easter services. They soon found themselves standing before St. Peter who told them before they could enter Heaven, they had to tell him what was the significance of Easter.

The first blonde said, "Easter is a holiday where we have a big feast and we give thanks and eat turkey."

St. Peter said, "Noooooo,", and he banished her to hell.

The second blonde said, "Easter is when we celebrate Jesus' birth and exchange gifts."

St. Peter said, "Noooooo," and he banished her to hell.

The third blonde said, she knew what Easter is, and St. Peter said,"So, tell me."

She said, "Easter is a Christian holiday that coincides with the Jewish festival of Passover. Jesus was having Passover feast with His disciples when He was betrayed by Judas, and the Romans arrested him. The Romans hung Him on the cross and eventually He died. Then they buried Him in a tomb behind a very large boulder...."

St. Peter said, "Verrrrrry good, continue."

"And on the third day Jesus pushed away the boulder, came out of the tomb, saw his shadow and so they had six more weeks of basketball."

On Ward, The Reverend Tony

PS - Our dear friend Mistress Margaret joins the festivities tonight fresh of the bus from San Ramon, California if you know what I mean.

April 8, 2005

The Reverend Tony for Pope Ringo George™

Why not, the qualifications to be Pope are few as Fox News reports, and I quote, "once a man accepts election to the papacy, he must be willing to be baptized, ordained a priest and consecrated bishop of Rome and meet the qualifications of those positions." (<http://www.foxnews.com/story/0,2933,59245,00.html#6>)

The Church will have to change requirements 2 and 3 because I am not giving up the ladies.

And I have a great name all picked out. Seeing how the last pope was Pope John Paul, I figure that I should continue The Beatles theme and take the name of Pope Ringo

George,

So please contact all of the Cardinals you know and ask them to vote for The Reverend Tony to become Pope Ringo George, Thank you for your efforts, thank you very much.

PS - Healing and miracles at Matt's tonight around sunset.

April 15, 2005

Greetings on the Ides of April,

If you are a patriot and support The Reverend Tony for Pope Ringo George™, then please file, before midnight tonight, the attached Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File U.S. Individual Income Tax.

The Battle for the Papacy™ is in full swing and Ngozi Okonjo-Iweala, the Finance Minister of Nigeria, has thrown his considerable support behind The Reverend Tony for Pope Ringo George™. Minister Ngozi is providing a line of credit in the amount of € 75,000,000 to assist with the campaign, if you know what I mean. Just email me your favorite Cardinal's bank account number and routing information and the appropriate contribution will be made.

Watch all the action in the Battle for the Papacy™ on Fox News and Intrade. (<http://www.intrade.com/>) Just click on Markets and search for "papacy". For this election, the Reverend Tony has assumed the alias of Francis Arinze, the Cardinal from Nigeria, because, as I understand it, the Catholic Church would never elect a Methodist as Pope. Such intolerance will not be tolerated during my papacy. Tempus fugit, Il PoPo RG

PS - Some of you pointed out that Pope George Ringo would be more accurate and even though you may be technically correct, please note that George is dead and Ringo is married to a Bond girl. Mi riposo, TRT

April 22, 2005

Greetings,

The Battle for the Papacy™ is over and regrettably the idea of a Methodist Pope did not sell nearly as well as I first thought, even with the € 75,000,000 provided by Minister Ngozi of Nigeria.

Thanks to everyone for the outpouring of support for the campaign of The Reverend Tony for Pope Ringo George™, I could not have done it without you.

(WARNING - IF YOU BUY/SELL STOCK BASED ON THE FOLLOWING ANNOUNCEMENT YOU WILL GO DIRECTLY TO JAIL, MAYBE THE ONE IN BAGHDAD TOO!

Tonight at Matt's, The Reverend Tony will reveal insider trading information guaranteed to yield big payoffs before incarceration. The Reverend Tony is in preliminary discussions with Krispy Kreme Donuts (KKD on the NYSE) which you may have noticed is selling at a near an all time low.

The goal is to add PlaciBox©™, the Magenta pill, It Cures Everything!!! to Krispy Kreme donuts and I even have a working catch phrase "Donuts Cure Everything!" You do know one of the biggest problems in Iraq is that you cannot get a Krispy Kreme donut anywhere in the entire country! No wonder the people are revolting.

So join The Lady Claire and I tonight and bring all of your money, in cash, because you want to be in on the ground floor of this scam. Peace, love and soul, TRT

Felicitations,

Tomorrow is the Kentucky Derby and attached is the exciting new horse racing game, Happy Horse Racing™ for you to play at your Kentucky Derby party. It plays like your basic Super Bowl game where you select your squares, the the horses, then the win/place/show.

For tomorrow's race we have 20 horses so the total prize of $ 60 is paid $ 40 to winner, $15 to place and $5 to show. Enjoy and send me some feedback. TRT

PS - At Matt's tonight I will reveal how each of you can leave $ 3.5 MILLION DOLLARS to your loved ones when you die and not pay any estate taxes, but you have to be there to learn this valuable information.

PPS - Our friend and distinguished Austin lawyer Larry York is suggesting to his clients that each of them send a copy of his/her Living Will to Tom DeLay (a a fine french name) and ask that Hot Tub place it in the Congressional Record to eliminate any confusion in case of a persistent vegetative state.

May 13, 2005

Greetings,

To those of us born on the 13th of any month a Friday birthday becomes extra special. Most will be thinking about bad luck and omens leaving all that good luck unclaimed. So The Reverend Tony recommends that you embrace your contrarian and hug a black kitty, put your underwear on backwards, whatever.

Happy Horse Racing™ was a rousing success at The Reverend Tony's Kentucky Derby Party and so were Lady Claire's mint juleps which were much enjoyed by all. We waited until after the race to draw the Win/Place/Show columns which added to the excitement.

The Reverend Tony actually did correctly box the Trifecta (a cool $133,134.80 before taxes) but, unfortunately, Lady Claire forgot to drive out to Manor Downs to buy the chances. Now that hurt real bad, although not quite as bad as losing out as Pope Ringo George™. (see Matt's El Rancho, April 15 - 29, 2005)

We have been promised that The Right Reverend Dale may visit Matt's tonight for some very spiritual healing, the laying on of hands, etc, so please bring your cameras for another exciting photo opportunity, Polaroids will also be available for €10 each ($12.70 as of 5/12/2005 and falling) Peace, love and soul, The Reverend Tony

PS - Please hurry now before it is too late and mail a copy of your Living Will to Tom "Hot Tub" DeLay for entry into the Congressional Record.

Bon jour,

Star Wars, Revenge of the Sith, opens this weekend so if you do go see it and this movie must be seen in a theater, then please do not drink the water. because there is sith in it I saw the first Star Wars on opening night in 1977 and saw the second in a theater too but have not seen one since, quelle frommage.

What I still remember from the 1977 Oscars was that Star Wars did not win Best Picture, Director or Screenplay, can you remember what film did win all 3 Oscars along with Best Actress? For those you born since 1977, please visit Oscar.org for the answer.

New Scams are scarce what with the Legislature in session and Congress debating the merits of a judicial appointment who never seems to wash her hair. When The Reverend Tony is Grand Impotentate Rule 7 is that at the start of every legislative session, whether it be local, school board, state or federal, The Presiding Officer will immediately entertain a Motion to Convene and Adjourn "So we don't do any more damage."

The Reverend Tony's Jeopardy answer for the week is "Out on Highway 61." The first person to answer correctly will receive three margaritas tonight at Matt's courtesy of PB/16 which is Pope Benedict XVI's rap name or so I was told. But you have to be present to collect. Peace love and soul, TRT

June 3, 2005

Greetings and felicitations,

Even though Lady Claire and The Reverend Tony™ will be at the beck and call of room service this weekend AND we deserve it, our thoughts will be with you, NOT!!!!

And please mark you calendars for a special, invitation only, performance of the Murrah Misses™, Friday, June 10 at Matt's Poolside, 8pmish. For this very special occasion, The Reverend Tony™ has designed an extremely special line of cheerleading outfits for the Murrah Misses™ made from genuine 100% Nigerian Naugahyde© as certified by MInister Ngozi, which is nice.

Many of you have asked about The Reverend Tony's views on the politics and whatnot. The Reverend Tony is reminded of some excellent advice from his dear mother, God rest her soul. What she learned me of was that if I could not find something good to say about somebody, then I should just keep my mouth shut.

So while The Reverend Tony may be thinking about it, he sure ain't gonna be talkin' about it. Peace, love and margaritas, The Reverend Tony

June 10, 2005

Greetings,

The Lady Claire and I just have returned from Cancun with a true relic. Late Thursday night at Carlos and Charlie's I bought a tequila shot for The Virgin Mary or so she said. After she vanished I kept the shot glass from which she drank and that Relic, still bearing The Virgin's lipstick, will be on display this Friday night at Matt's in this special benefit for the Ladies of the Night.

For a suggested donation of € 20 you or a loved one will receive a 20 x 25 cm photograph, autographed of The Reverend Tony with The Virgin Mary's Tequila Shot Glass Relic.

The Murrah Misses will not be performing because of a terrible rash inflicted by the genuine 100% Nigerian Naugahyde© costumes which apparently were not as genuine as represented by Minister Ngozi, but that is my problem along with the Misses who will retain psychotic if not physical scars for the rest of her lives.

Many of you may have heard about danger and lawlessness on our border with Mexico like the recent murder of the chief of police in Nuevo Laredo on his first day on the job!.

I am very pleased to report that Cancun is not nearly as lawless as the border at Laredo and you can easily get used to carrying a concealed weapon. I did find The Lady Claire a darling, little 3 shot 25 mm pistol in a cute thigh holster at the new Louis Vuitton store in Cancun. First shot is Chanel No. 5 and the last 2 are hollow-point, mercury-filled, pure lead dumb dumbs, which is sweet. Peace, love and tequila. The Reverend Tony

Greetings,

College football recruiting season is upon us which gives The Reverend Tony™ and opportunity to revive a former life.

Born in Austin ran for a little over a year and relied on the Birth Announcements in the American-Spaceman. Did you know that at last count, the proud parents of Central Texas had found over 30 different ways to spell Britney. Whoever said that this generation has lost its creativity is WRONG.

The Reverend Tony™ announces The All Name Team™ with the selection of the No. 1 quarterback name in the country

SPUD DICK

Spud Dick™ is a pro-style QB out of Indianapolis Central High School. I bet his parents were especially proud to announce the birth of Baby Spud.

Everyone is encouraged to send in nominations for the All Name Team except for residents of Louisiana where names like Q'MooShoo or L'Arethmaticette are common.

Spud will be with us tonight at Matt's El Rancho, signing autographs and taking Polaroids in blatant violation of many NCAA rules and regulations which is nice. Mr. Dick will be escorted by the lovely and talented Mistress M who will be working in Austin this weekend. Her schedule, suggested gratuities and some revealing lingerie photos are available on the website at TheReverendTony.com.

Finally, many of you were skeptical of The Reverend Tony™'s encounter with The Virgin Mary™. Also at TheReverendTony.com you can view a photo of The Relic of The Virgin Mary at Carlos & Charlies which should convince even the most skeptical of you as to the veracity of The Relic. Peace, love but Death by Bonga, The Reverend Tony

Scam of the Week™

Bring The Reverend Tony the head of Tom Cruise, detached pleaz, and you will receive a € 75,000,000 reward!!!!!! Upon verification of identity by Dr. Ngozi, Chief Pathologist, St. Almas Hospital, Lagos, Nigeria, Minister Ngozi, Chief Finance Minister of Nigeria, will wire transfer the reward to your bank.

Spurz Win!!!

Congratulations to the San Antonio Spurz and we know our friend Frank "Manu" Garza is feeling no pain today. A victory by a team composed of mostly furiners is a tribute to the attitude of tolerance that The Reverend Tony encourages. Although I would ship Toné Toné Parker back to France if he doesn't develop a 15' pull-up jumper next season. Peace, love and Spurz, I remain The Reverend Tony PS - Mistress M says that All Name QB Spud Dick™ was all that he could be and more.

July 1, 2005

Lady Claire and I are on the annual pilgrimage to visit the Relics of Oklahoma. The Reverend Tony is very proud to be from Oklahoma where your entree is served with cream gravy, ketchup or sometimes both.

Scam of the Week™

Fortunately for Minister Ngozi no one claimed the € 75,000,000 reward for the head of Tom C because it popped off all by itself last week and not a moment to soon.

Unfortunately we have not heard the last about Tom C and not surprisingly the revelations are about him and a certain lead singer of certain Top 40 band who has embarked on a solo career reminiscent of the late George Michael after he left Wham.

HORNS WIN !!!!!!

How about those Horns, another College World Series title and another success for Coach Garrido and second in 6 years at UT. You kind of knew they had a good chance to go all the way when they had to and did beat Ole Miss twice, at Oxford, both elimination games. Way to go Coach Augie, born in the year of the Tiger too.

Safety tip for the holiday weekend, when the police pull you over just remember to tell the arresting officer that you know The Reverend Tony and everything will work out just fine. Unless and until, I remain The Reverend Tony

July 15, 2005

Greetings,

Sorry about missing last week but The Reverend Tony was recovering from the first week of the Tour de France, what with everyone smuggling their grapes across the finish line, if you know what I mean. Does anyone in the congregation know who came up with bicycle pants and it better not be Tom Cruise.

You may have noticed that movie reviews are few and far between because there are no movies out worth seeing unless you were waiting for Dodgeball Director's Cut which released on DVD this week.

Attorney General Abbott Wins Court Judgment With Six Colonic Hydrotherapy Providers

Manufacturers, clinics in five cities to comply with health law

AUSTIN - Texas Attorney General Greg Abbott today announced agreed court judgments against six defendants involved in the unlawful selling and clinical use of prescription "colonic hydrotherapy" devices in five Texas cities.

WANT TO KNOW MORE? <http://www.oag.state.tx.us/oagnews/release.php?id=822>

Cherubum.

Greetings,

What a total bummer, but rest assured that no one who ordered a Cherubum™ or contacted Dr. Ngozi were reported to the Attorney General.

And this is just the tip of the proverbial iceberg according to a very highly placed and completely unanimous source in the AGs office who I will refer to as "Deep Bum".

As usual it all started with an attempt to corner the market for colonic hydrotherapy devices (CHDs) led by a ring from right here in River City. Want to know more please visit the website (TheReverendTony.com) for the complete back story about the CHD movement and an exclusive off-the-record interview with Deep Bum. (Parental Advisory)

Tonight at Matt's, Lady Claire will be showing off photos of her newest granddaughter Melissa while the Allman Brothers perform their big hit of the same name, live on the patio radio. Be there or be L7, Peace, love and fried shrimp. The Reverend Tony

August 5, 2005

We are back to Mississippi so you will have to marg up without us. Lady Claire is going to see her new granddaughter Melissa (who turns 18 on July 15, 2023 but she's a Rooster fellas) and we both are going to a wedding and the bride and groom are not even related. (Aside - I actually did just see The Wedding Crashers and wanted to try out some of their moves)

The Wedding Crashers **1/2

At the Alamo Draffhouse South Lamar (near the Cherubum<sup>TM</sup> manufacturing facility) I would have given 3 stars but for the cheesy monster shark special effects and the veritable plethora of naked breasts even Jane Seymour's which are two.

Year of the Rooster

Because the Chinese is based on moon cycles unlike ours which is based on the sun, the restaurant menu may mislead those of you born in January and February. For example, the Year of the Rooster continues until January 28, 2006 which is New Year's Eve for the Year of the Dog and the blessed 60 year dog for those born in 1946 like our last two president's and most of the high school class of 1964.

Many of our congregation have been mesmerized by The Reverend Tony's revelations based on the Chinese astrology. If you would like to know more please to consult The Complete Book of Chinese Horoscopes by Chris Marshall, ISBN 1556704909 available online but only through used book sellers like Borders.com and ABE which is my fav at <http://www.abebooks.com>.

CAUTION #1 - Every animal sign has good qualities but also bad qualities to balance things out. For example, those born in the year of the Rooster are loyal, observant but can be egotistical while those born in the year of the Dog like our last two presidents, are faithful, sincere but judgmental. Ok, 42 was probably born in the hour of the Snake which is popular, charming, but can be dishonest but that is just a reasonable deduction from the actions of the personality which do tend to follow the Chinese characteristics.

CAUTION #2 - The Reverend Tony's use of the Chinese has actually precipitated one divorce and predicted the source of discord in many other relationships. CAUTION #3 - Before using the Chinese please take 2 PlaciBox™, the Magenta pill, It Cures Everything!!!, drink 2 or more margaritas for a week to 10 days and you should feel much better.

COMING NEXT WEEK - FOOTBALL!!!
ALL-NAME HIGH SCHOOL STARS

Peace and love through clean living, I remain The Reverend Tony

2005 ALL NAME TEAM - COLLEGE

This is one pretty much writes itself, direct from the pages of Street & Smith's 2005 College Football yearbook the All Name Team - College. Last century, The Reverend Tony opined on baby names in Born in Austin, at a time when each Sunday our local fish wrap (Austin American-Spaceman or Spaceman for short) published the names of all babies born in Austin. I never knew that there were so many different ways to spell Britney/Brittany/Britni/Brytney/Britknee/etc. but from S&S I learned an equal number of ways to spell Trey/Tre/Tres/Tra/Tré/etc.

Each of the honorees was projected as a starter for the upcoming season and the list is limited to Division One. This is why neither I-Perfection Harris nor his brother Marvelous made the list because they are not projected as starters. Please visit TheReverendTony.com and cast your vote for the best name or suggest another.

OFFENSE

Quarterback	Dustin Grutza, Cincinnati
Tailback	DeArrius Howard, Arkansas

August 19, 2005

The theme for tonight's sermon is "What If the Hokey Pokey is What It's All About?" Donations are encouraged and will be accepted and spent accordingly.

Tonight is the last Full Moon before football season kicks off and traditionally the time our pledges were taught to perform The Double Inverted Moon™ and the first of our many chants, "I Was Born in the Woods".

So take care on the highways and byways this weekend, especially tonight, and remember that if you are pulled over by the coppers just repeat after The Reverend Tony:

"Occifer, I am a close personal friend of The Reverend Tony" and everything will work out just fine.

Peace and love through clean living, The Reverend Tony PS - Hurry before it's too late and cast your VOTE for the All-Name College Football Player of the Year at TheReverendTony.com. We are getting enough write-ins for wide out DeMarius Bilbo, a Hobbit playing at Georgia Tech, that he is officially added to the list.

August 26, 2005

Greetings,

The Lady Claire and I will be enjoying the hospitality of Le Big EZ this weekend to celebrate her sister Belmont's birthday and the 4th anniversary of The Reverend Tony.

The menu for the weekend is:

Last night we ate at the Pelican Club for the Cippino which gets 3 Yums.

Today is Friday Lunch at Galatoire's followed by Belmont's dinner at the Chef's Table of Commander's Palace which is nice, especially the Dessert Bomb at the end where they serve one of every dessert on the menu and two cream brûlées which is double special.

Saturday we drive to Chalmette a few miles past the Battle of New Orleans, to graze at Rocky & Carlo's which has a sign in the only window which says "Ladies Invited".

We first grazed there many moons ago with our dear friends the Reynas and on the trip there watched the filming of a scene from the TV series Mr. T and Tina.

Saturday night we dine at Ralph's on the Park known for soft shell crabs which are almost in season. Then Sunday brunch back at Galatoire's ("Do you folks need a menu?") topped off with a Lucky Dog 4 Way at the airport before departure. Total calories are estimated at 1,000,005. Laissez les bons temps rouler! The Reverend Tony.

PS - The voting in the All Name Team - College is now closed and the ballots have been tabulated and certified by the accounting firm of Ngozi & Anderson, LLP, Lagos, Nigeria BR549. While the competition was supposed to be limited to current college players the winner with way over 60% of the votes is

Spud Dick, Indianapolis Central

September 2, 2005

Greetings,

Please join us tonight for four generations of Lightseys from Mississippi, Lady Claire's mother-in-law, Bertile, Albert, her ex, her daughter Meredith and the two grandbabies, Grace and and Melissa, along with the Survivors from the Storm, Lady Claire and The Reverend Tony.

While we celebrate our salvation many are totally without and not only on the coast but both Baton Rouge and Jackson have doubled in size with refugees so contributions to their Food Banks are good too. Margs at 7p. Peace, TRT

Escape from the Storm<sup>TM</sup>

Greetings,

“Hurricanes aren’t too bad when one is trapped in New Orleans at the Royal Sonesta with room service. Now that is what I call a Reverend Tony disaster.”

That was the lead I wrote last Saturday morning, sitting on the veranda of the Sonesta. But waiting for standby on the last flight out of New Orleans last Sunday before The Storm, it felt more like the Titanic. We had even dined Saturday night at Galatoires, the last meal they will serve for quite some time.

I have been trying to figure out why Lady Claire and I survived while so many others were trapped or worst and the best I can come up with so far is so I could tell you the story about the escape.

Sunday morning was perfect, not a cloud in the blue sky and not a soul at the Royal Sonesta’s pool either which was strange because Saturday morning there were still people hanging out from the night before, some of the Wives v Jocks were still attempting to mate.

Mayor Nagin was ordering a mandatory evacuation of everyone except emergency personnel, the media and hotel guests so Claire ordered room service while I went to the liquor store for more gin and wine and to Walgreens for snacks because I was not going to pay mini-bar prices unless and until things got desperate.

It should not have but did surprise me to find everything boarded up except for the Daiquiri bar of the Sonesta which was serving half price pitchers. That and the mention of snakes coming out with a flood especially water moccasins, finally made me understand that this might not turn out quite the way as I had first thought.

About 11am, after room service, nice hot showers and putting on our travel clothes, and Lady Claire looked especially fine as is her custom, she took one suitcase and went down to the front to start looking for a cab. I finished packing and joined her about 10 minutes later. While waiting, Claire and I were interviewed by Fox TV and Ben Crawford saw us.

Since we were checked out, the Sonesta could not rent us a room or else violate the law and since we were no longer hotel guests, then we were subject to the mandatory evacuation. So we had no choice but to get to the airport because I was not going to spend 3-5 days at the Superdome.

There were only 5 of us still left at the hotel, Andrew, a way hung over real estate guy from DC and two young ladies in their 20s who had found a rent car at the airport and were then driving to Lafayette. We had been trying to get a cab for over an hour when out of the blue heaven came a van big enough for all five of us and our luggage. The driver had a Haitian flag hanging from the rear view mirror and I think he was dealing drugs or people or maybe both as he drove.

But he knew all the back roads including an alley and delivered us to the airport in about 40 minutes. He even toted our luggage to the curb. Since it took Belmont and Frank an hour and a half by interstate to reach the airport exit when they left at 4:30 AM Sunday morning, we would not have made our flight without Mr. Haiti #1. Belmont and Frank made it safely back to Jackson by noon Sunday but they were without electricity until late Wednesday afternoon.

Southwest had already canceled our 5:30p flight and their 3:30p was full and had all of the 4:30, 5:30, etc. on their standby list. But during the cab ride, the hung over guy got a ticket to Houston on Continental so I called and got us on the 5:30p arriving in Austin at 9:45P which was not too bad. We ended up flying stand by on the 3:30p which was Continental's next to last out of town.

Four Yums way up for Continental who had flown special support personnel in that morning so that their local people could tend to their own business. I learned this from the Agent at the gate who was based in Austin. He also told me that everyone flown in were all flying out on the last plane which made us feel much better.

While we were checking through security, several buses pulled up and out swarmed a lot of really large black people. My first reaction was that they were busing people from the Superdome to the airport and in a sense that was correct. The Saints had chartered planes to take their players, families and support personnel to San Antonio and also escape the storm. We took off about 3:45p in cloudy but not threatening weather and the Superdome glittered in the distance as we headed home. Our luggage beat us to Austin so we went straight to Matt's because I really, really did need a margarita.

So why were Lady Claire, The Reverend Tony and all of The Saints saved when so many still don't know what fate has in mind. Well maybe only to tell the story or more likely because we had means. We had the cash to get the cab and get the cab to take us to the airport. We had Continental Elite and a credit card. The Saints travel by charter.

The poor people who didn't get out couldn't get out because they had no means, no transportation, they are infirm, old, many now dead and they had no way to get out. Theirs is a miserable fate. So if you are so inclined please send a contribution to your local food bank especially if your town will be sheltering refugees like Baton Rouge and Austin will be.

But most importantly we had all of you praying for us, even the atheists and agnostics. Thanks for all of your good vibrations, we could feel your energy. The Reverend Tony

PS - The rising flood waters also dislodged the rats so vote now at TheReverendTony.com, who wins in Snakes v Rats.

Photos from the Last Weekend in New Orleans

The Chef's Table at Commander's Palace with Adam our waiter and Tory McPhail, chief chef and you can tell that because he has the tallest hat. Belmont is in back between Frank and me.

The Last Supper at Galatoire's with Bob our waiter.

The book Belmont is holding is the Galatoire's story and she had them all sign it. Breaks my heart but it does establish the provenance.

This is sunrise on Sunday morning the day before The Storm blew in that Belmont took on their way back to Jackson. Belmont said that the birds would fly in formation first one way and then the other, sounds freaky.

September 9, 2005

Greetings,

Before the announcement of the latest scam, one more comment about the people of New Orleans who chose to stay. They had to leave their pets behind because the public shelters would not take pets. I could never leave my kitties behind and none of you would either. When pets became allowed people started leaving. In Cuba refugees from a hurricane are allowed to bring their pets (including chickens) and their TVs!

Lesson No. 1 - Save the Pets, Save the People!

As you may recall the original plan for the hurricane weekend was to consume one million calories which did not occur but only because the Chalmette Battleground was closed and therefore we did not lunch at Rocky and Carlo's but listened to that french woman sing at The Napoleon House. So that reduced the calorie intake by about 200,000 and for those of you interested Rocky and Carlo's is gone too.

It will take a while to accept that Lady Claire and I attended the last Friday Lunch at Galatoire's and it was everything and more. We arrived about a quarter before noon and the main room was packed with women dressed so fine, pearls, pearls, pearls girls everywhere so went upstairs to the bar for a cocktail.

Sitting at the bar already was a 20s oriental in rep tie and khakis drinking a Martini up with olives and reading his pathology text. Then a lawyer ordered "Dewars on the rocks and make that a double" and his friend ordered a Manhattan while their lady friends drank Cosmos.

Bob brought us the usual, garlic salads and souffle potatoes to start then Lady Claire had the fish with jumbo lump crab and I had the strip rare. They served her so much jumbo lump crab that she barely touched the fish.

Later in the afternoon the room starts to rock, more lawyers arrive and table hopping starts in earnest. We left about 3pm just as it was beginning but we had to leave or miss out on the Chef's table at Commander's Palace.

Friday evening was The Chef's Table at Commander's Palace and we arrived a bit late but Ti Martin was waiting along with Chef Tory McPhail and our waiter Adam who later agreed to participate in the five year unsupervised study required by the FDA for my latest scam Sex Before Dinner™ which was in double secret pre-preliminary preproduction for

The Food Network until The Storm put it up on the shelf until The Big EZ is restored.

We will be holding auditions at Matt's tonight for Sex Before Dinner™ but you must actually have sex before you arrive because there is not really a good place for that at the restaurant.

The Last Supper at Galatoire's began about 7pm but unlike Friday Lunch the main room was almost empty, we were probably the fifth table out of about 40. Bob brought us soufflé potatoes without our even asking which is tres sweet. After many martinis and hugs (the photos are on TheReverendTony.com) we retired earlier than usual because Belmont and Frank were leaving for Jackson at 4:30 am which is way too early for me. Actually the only reason we did not leave with them was that they came in Frank's cute new Audi convertible for the picnic to the Battleground and Rocky and Carlo's instead of the Sequoia which would have been enough to accommodate all of us and our luggage.

The only good news about my Sooners losing to the Frogs last week is that Master David K will be buying the margaritas tonight at Matt's. Be there by 8p or get off the bus.

September 16, 2005

Greetings,

This will be The Reverend Tony's last performance for a few weeks because of a meeting with the Pope next Sunday at the Vatican for Him to drink from The Virgin Mary's Tequila Shot Glass Relic (see column of June 10, 2005). Who knew El Popo liked tequila?

Tonight at Matt's we will be entertaining another Division One recruit, Leon "Big Foot" Posey, a punter out of Jackson, MS. He will be accompanied by his deep snapper Will "Deep Snapper" Trapp and several ladies brought in special for the occasion.

But please note that we will marg about 9pm tonight because of travel arrangements. See you then, Multo Margs, The Reverend Tony PS - Please vote on your favorite high school Dance Song and Make-Out song at the website. Ciao, The Reverend Tony from just south of freedom.

September 30, 2005

Saluti,

Tonight we celebrate Lancer's birthday with margs at Matt's. Toasts begin about 7pm.

The Reverend Tony™ will also discuss his planned audience with El Papa to view The Relic of The Virgin Mary™ de Carlos y Charlies™. (June 17, 2005)

While The Reverend Tony™ did not actually meet with El Papa, who was in Milan for Fashion Week and partying with Mr. and Mrs. D (M & CZJ) and those teen icons Mistresses LL and HD. However Bruce, El Papa's private secretary did view The Relic but expressed doubt about the authenticity but did accept the Fendi suitcase full of Euros provided by Minister Ngozi especially for the occasion. (Aside - It is also now clear that Minister Ngozi receives a substantial portion of his Euros from the sale of Louis V's and Fendis on the streets of IT by a swarm of round-headed Africans. Isn't it just amazing what exquisite work can be produced by a well trained child labor force? Kathi Lee must be sooooo jealous)

We were very very proud of the performance of our Governor Rick "Buoni Capelli" Perry during Hurricane Rita which was pretty much all CNN had to broadcast. Put a little more pomade in his hair and dream about Ronald Reagan and Death Valley Days. Or as Enrico Fermi once put it in scientific terms "Voce Ricca + Buoni Capelli = Il Vice Presidente!" Amore e capire di pace, Sempre, Il Reverend Toné Toné™

Just wondering how Tom DeLay will answer the proverbial question from his new and very big cellmate "Do you want to be the husband or the wife?" Visit TheReverendTony.com and vote early and vote often.

OU-Texas weekend will never be the same once the game is moved from the State Fair and one big reason is the demise of The Turkey Leg Paradigm™ which I use to predict the winner. To many of the congregation the turkey leg is pretty much at the bottom of anything that you would eat especially in public and in front of your fiends. But I have found that the game is more often than not won by the team with the most number of fans eating turkey legs before the opening kickoff.

Which may explain why OU has been on a streak lately. Turkey legs are something of a delicacy in Oklahoma as one of the few foods that is not flaked and formed such as hot dogs, hamburgers, meatloaf and fish sticks.

Once released Hot Tub DeLay can easily find work on the midway at the State Fair either as a Carney or he could replace Turtle Boy at the Freak Show. Turtle Boy's skin was covered with what appeared to be scales and "He walks, he talks, he crawls on his belly like a reptile." Hot Tub could handle that don't you think?

October 14, 2005

Buon Giorno,

With The Bird Flu aka H5N1™ almost upon us, The Reverend Tony™ will be passing out free samples of PlaciBox©™, the Magenta pill, It Cures Everything!!!™ which does cure The Bird Flu aka H5N1™ as proven by years of experimentation at The Nigerian Bird Flu Clinic™ by Dr. Wilhelm Ngozi. Dr. Ngozi has been so successful in developing The Cure™ primarily because he invented The Bird Flu aka H5N1™. I believe it is what they call in the advertising business The Necessary Evil™.

To cure The Bird Flu aka H5N1™ take two PlaciBox©™, the Magenta pill, It Cures Everything!!!™ in the evening along with two fresh lime margaritas, such as Matt's serves, for 7-10 days and you will be cured. Begin tonight about 7:30 p.m.. Peace, love and bonga, The Reverend Tony.

PS - The Turkey Leg Paradigm™ did a piss poor job of predicting the outcome of the game last week because even though the Good Sooners eating turkey legs outnumbered the Evil Horns 3 to 1, the Evil Horns still administered a bare bottom spanking to the Good Sooners. The Evil Horns are now the front runner to sign All-Name QB Spud Dick™.

October 21, 2005

Greetings,

Another home football weekend this time against Los Raiders Rojos™ from Tech de Tejas™ with the scary running around throwing up everywhere with the silly football knickers AND they will taunt you a second time.

What that means for those of you at Matt's tonight be prepared for at least a 2 margarita wait so you may want to order a small Rick Perry™ too. (The Rick Perry™ is not on the menu but is a small Bob™ with the meat on the side)

Lady Claire and I will continue The World Tour™ tonight in San Antonio for The St. Mary's Law School Reunion™. Next week The Reverend Tony will reveal the rumor I circulated at said reunion about the St Mary's grad (either CD or DC, the vision was not clear and in stereo) who is on the very short list for W's next appointment to the Supreme Court in the event Harriet Miers does not work out. Margs for all and all for Margs™, I remain always The Reverend Tony

PS - Next week is the annual Halloween Costume Contest and The Reverend Tony is setting the bar pretty high unless a couple comes as the scariest thing I have heard about in a long time "Bush/Cheney 2008" and I'm talking about Laura/Lynne!!! Hey, why not, they are each more competent than their husbands and Laura used to be a chain smoker too, if you know what I mean.

October 28, 2005

Greetings,

Tonight at Matt's, The Reverend Tony™ will announce that negotiations with The Vatican™ are almost complete to acquire the naming rights to The Sistine Chapel which will be known for at least the next 20 years as The Reverend Tony's Sistine Chapel™.

And to raise the money, € 7,000,000 per year, The Reverend Tony™ will auction off face rights to the art on the ceiling of The Reverend Tony's Sistine Chapel™. For instance, you must be prepared to bid more than € 3,000,000 per year to top Joe Jamail™ for the face on The Big God™ touching Adam, otherwise The Big God™ will be looking a lot like Joe Jamail™ for at least the next 20 years.

The Reverend Tony™ does have the exclusive renewal option for the naming/face rights and the right of first refusal on any sale of the facilities which The Reverend Tony™ would move to Las Vegas to become Elton's Lounge in The Reverend Tony's Sistine Chapel™ at Caesar's Palace. Contributors will, of course, be included on the VIP list for opening night, both preparty and afterparty.

Auction starts promptly at 8ish, margs are available upon arrival. Always, The Reverend Tony

November 4, 2005

The Reverend Tony™ is pleased to announce two new couples to join up for the five year unsupervised study required by the FDA for approval of Sex Before Dinner™.

<http://www.msnbc.msn.com/id/9884681/>

Yes, it is true. Just before the State Dinner last Wednesday night these couples had sex and you can tell by the glow especially Prince C, who is just radiant.

Sex Before Dinner™ is the American version of the popular French TV show Sexe avant des Escargots which translates into english as Sex before Snails which would just not sell. The French point of view, and well taken I might add, is that sex is much better before a dinner with snails on the menu .

You may ask "The Reverend Tony, how can I participate in this five year unsupervised study required by the FDA for approval of Sex Before Dinner™?" It is very simple, send no money now* and agree that for the next five years you will have Sex Before Dinner™ at least three times per week and report the effect, if any, that Sex Before Dinner™ had on your dining experience.

Please send your weekly report to SexBeforeDinner@TheReverendTony.com. The Reverend Tony will analyze all of the results for inclusion in a coffee table book to be published by the FDA at the end of the five year unsupervised study. Peace, love and Sex Before Dinner™, The Reverend Tony™

Greetings,

This will be the final appearance of the month for The Reverend Tony™ as the world tour continues next weekend in Memphis/Oxford for the Ole Miss v LSU game.

Tonight The Reverend Tony™ will be again be passing out samples of PlaciBox©™, the Magenta pill, It Cures Everything!!! which has now been approved to treat the dreaded pig flu by the NDA (Nigerian Drug Administration which does not require a five year unsupervised study). (see burst of October 14, 2005)

So if you plan on being around swine, Tom DeLay or a University of Arkansas football game, The Reverend Tony™ would suggest that you protect yourself by taking two PlaciBox©™ each morning, drink plenty of fluids especially margaritas, get plenty of rest and The Reverend Tony™ guarantees that within a week to 10 days you will be cured or double you monkey back.

Bidding for face on The Big God™ in The Reverend Tony's Sistine Chapel™ is moving right along and Lady Oprah has even topped the € 3,000,000 per year which Joe Jamail™ bid for the face on The Big God™. The Reverend Tony™ will keep you posted on the flip side along with excerpts from the reports of the first participants in the Sex Before Dinner™ study. Peace, love and bongas, I remain The Reverend Tony™

PS - Home football game tomorrow against the Kansas Jaychicks so congregate at Matt's by 7:30p and don't be late or the bus may leave without you

November 18, 2005

Greetings,

With The Thanksgiving Holiday™ arriving next week, The Reverend Tony™ was hoping to bring the congregation an new and delectable main course for the feast, fried Nutria™ but was unable to find any recipe that did not sound like Chef Tell™, the one minute chef on the 6 o'clock news back in the 80s who went something like this (and he spoke in a heavy Austrian accent)

"Welcome, tonight you shall learn how to cook a lovely filet of flounder in a lemon-buerre sauce. First take a nice flounder. Then you filet the flounder and saute the flounder over medium heat in a lemon-buerre sauce. Enjoy!"

So here is the best fried Nutria™ recipe The Reverend Tony™ could find after extensive googling

Ingredients

one medium Nutria™, skinned and detailed (about 40 pounds)
salt and pepper

Cooking

Place the Nutria™ big tub of hot oil preferably lard and peanut oil in equal parts at 325° and cook for 1 hour per pound until done, approximately 40 hours. You may need to about more oil. Enjoy!

Walking in Memphis

Lady Claire and I will be in Memphis for the LSU - Ole Miss game Saturday night in Oxford. Those of you old enough may remember that two years ago at the same game The Reverend Tony™ predicted that either Eli Manning would win the Heisman trophy that day or LSU™ would play my Sooners™ for a national championship at the Sugar Bowl™ in New Orleans™ and they kicked our ass but we did get to the Big Dance™ which I hope the UT fans in the congregation have a chance to enjoy this year.

Please visit the website (TheReverendTony.com) and enjoy the last week of Joe Jamail™ as the Big God™ at The Reverend Tony™'s Sistine Chapel™ because he has been officially outbid and I cannot reveal the high bidder other than to say she offered

€ 4,500,000 when Mr. Jamail™ offered only € 3,000,000 (Matt's El Rancho, October 28, 2005) but she also included 10% of the gross revenue from sales of her upcoming publication, The Gospel of O™ which is so sweet The Reverend Tony™ could not refuse and she is a lady. From a bit south of freedom I remain, The Reverend Tony™

Greetings,

While pondering the rhetorical question “Why does the US of A always get involved in situations where the only company capable of doing the work is Halliburton™?”

The World Tour™ continues where the wind comes sweeping down the plains and the burgers have fried onions. If you like your food with gravy or ketchup or both then you will love Oklahoma especially El Reno which is famous for the way they serve hamburgers with fried onions grilled into the beef, yummy. And Sid’s Diner even has a small shrine to The Reverend Tony™.

Scam of the Week™

Vote Early, Vote Often - Money will be of no object for either Joe Jamail™ or Lady O™ so the choice of The Big God™ at The Reverend Tony™'s Sistine Chapel™ must rest on artistic merit of which The Reverend Tony™ is a bit short.

So please visit TheReverendTony.com and vote for The Big God™ at The Reverend Tony™'s Sistine Chapel™.

LSU 40 - Ole Miss 7

Sporting events and especially football games bring out the most interesting food in people such as The Turkey Leg Paradigm™ (The Reverend Tony™ October 7, 2005)

But even The Reverend Tony™ had never before seen much less thought appropriate the very popular BBQ Pulled Pork Nachos with Sausage™ which is exactly like it sounds, beginning with a layer of tostado circles, add BBQ Pulled Pork then liquid cheese product topped with jalapenos and sausage. If one of these Gut Bombs™* does not plug the dike then take two Placibox™©, The Magenta Pill, It Cures Everything™ for seven to 10 days and you will feel much better.

Fried Nutria™

Thanks to Prince Bill C of Harlem formerly Hot Springs, Arkansas, for a reminder that The Reverend Tony™ recipe is for a “farm raised” Nutria such as you find in Kentucky and Tennessee and that if you are using a “free range” Nutria which predominate in Louisiana and Arkansas then you should fry it for another 10 to 15 minutes per pound and definitely add more lard/oil. A very important safety tip from Prince Bill C of Harlem.

Matt's El Rancho will begin its holiday run next Friday with a performance by none other than Tony Bennett. Peace, love and bbq pork nachos for all, I remain The Reverend Tony™

December 2, 2005

Greetings,

The real Reverend Anthony "Tony" Talavera is alive and relocated to New Iberia although I cannot report well because he lost everything like about 75% of the people in New Orleans. Please visit Reverend Talavera at <http://www.frenchquarterwedding.com/>

Commanders Palace may reopen by March and the levees may be repaired to Category 3 strength by the start of hurricane season next June.

But fear not because The Reverend Tony's Fabulous Research Laboratory™ in Lagos, Nigeria is working around the clock on a Hurricane Strength™ version of Placibox™©, The Magenta Pill, It Cures Everything™.

Dr. Ngozi, chief of fabulous research at The Reverend Tony's Fabulous Research Laboratory™ believes that just two (2) Placibox™© dropped into the eye of the hurricane will cause the hurricane to coagulate into a solid block that will sink straight to the bottom. Voila, la hurricane est fin!

But The Reverend Tony™ needs your financial help to provide the funds needed to complete this in time for the next hurricane season. Give early, give often to The Reverend Tony™ or send cash to P.O. Box BR 549, Battle Creek, Michigan

Scam of the Week™

Tony Bennet™ will be performing the early show tonight at The Elephant Room™ and The Reverend Tony™ has arranged with the proprietor Flash Master Winky Dave Chamberdog™ to graciously DOUBLE™ his prices during this special event honoring the fabulous work going on at The Reverend Tony's Fabulous Research Laboratory™ in Lagos, Nigeria,

Holiday Gift Idea

The Reverend Tony™ has acquired a limited supply of reconditioned Cherubums™ for that hard-to-shop-for couple, so order early and order often. (<http://www.cherubum.com/>)

Fried Nutria™

Mistress C of Round Rock has actually tried the recipe and reports that you need only fry Nutria for 50 minutes per pound because it will continue to cook after removal from the boiling oil.

She also says that the technique works well with beaver but leave the tail on during frying to make removal from the boiling hot oil easier. Thanks for the tips Mistress C.

Please join Lady Claire™ and The Reverend Tony™ tonight in The Big Room™ at Matt's El Rancho™ after the Tony Bennet™ show at The Elephant Room™ and enjoy an overpriced drink courtesy of Flash Master Winky Dave Chamberdog™. Peace, love and soul, I remain The Reverend Tony™

December 7, 2005

Greetings,

The grandchildren Grace and Melissa are in town so The Reverend Tony™ will have a special midweek performance at Matt's tonight, Usual time, usual suspects. TRT

PS - Friday night I will reveal my special super recipe for Jerktria™ or jerky made from leftover fried nutria. Enjoy, The Reverend Tony™

December 9, 2005

Greetings,

ARE YOU READY FOR SOME JERKTRIA™? Here is the recipe from the super fabulous secret kitchen at The Reverend Tony™

1 pound of fried Nutria™ cut into strips about 8" long and 2" wide if you know what I mean and I think that you do!

Marinate overnight in 4 oz Worcestershire sauce, 4 oz olive oil, 4 cloves crushed garlic and 16 oz Big Red Soda™.

Preheat oven to 98° and simmer for 6 days or until dry. Enjoy

The Big God™ at The Reverend Tony™'s Sistine Chapel™.

Voting closes next year so Vote Early, Vote Often at The Reverend Tony™ for

Joe Jamail™ or Lady O™ or Other™*

* Except Tom "Hot Tub" Delay and Tom Cruise

Scam of the Week™

Tony Bennet™ will be again be performing an early show tonight at The Elephant Room™ and Flash Master Winky Dave Chamberdog™ has graciously agreed to TRIPLE his prices during this special event so please join The Reverend Tony™ at Matt's El Rancho and sample some of The Reverend Tony™'s JERKTRIA™.

Peace, love and Placibox™©, I remain The Reverend Tony™

PS - Sorry that the super special offer for The Cherubum™ has sold out but The Reverend Tony™ is hoping for another shipment in time for Valentine's Day.

December 16, 2005

Greetings to all and to all a good night,

Christmas™ Gift Ideas

1. Regrettably our most popular item The Cherubum™ is on back order and we are so very behind in our deliveries that it will in all probability be Valentine's Day™ before you and yours can enjoy the benefits of The Cherubum™.

2. But the Nutria Fryer™ is available for delivery before Christmas™ with FREE SHIPPING AND HANDLING. Chrome plated with brass accents this 55 gallon baby is perfect for frying even a large (60 pounder) Nutria™. Now SAFE™ for indoor use to help reduce your hearing bill and give your home that fresh fried holiday smell that will soon become a Christmas™ tradition. Try It, You'll Like It?

3. The Big God™ at The Reverend Tony™'s Sistine Chapel™ is still in play with a current top bid of only € 7,500,000 per year on a 20 year deal. Hurry and place your bid before we end up with you know who as The Big God™.

4. The Sex Before Dinner™ coffee table book will NOT be available for delivery this holiday season because The Reverend Tony has been sued in British court by one Prince C to enjoin publication of some fabulous photos purporting to be Prince C and Lady L in flagrante delicto as first suggested by The Reverend Tony (© November 4, 2005).

Last Chance for Romance Tonight

Tonight is the last scheduled performance of the year for The Reverend Tony in The Big Room™ at Matt's El Rancho™ where and when I will reveal my 6 Suggestions™ for whoever is stupid enough to be the next Pepsident™ of the United States™. For instance:

1. To reduce automobile traffic, The Reverend Tony suggests banning all cell phone use, including handsfree, on the public road with punishment similar to DWI or a good old fashioned flogging.

2. Prescription medications, The Reverend Tony suggests that pharmaceutical companies in exchange for The 17 Year Monopoly™ on the medication, give the US govment most favored nation pricing AND the cost of advertising could not be included in the price. The Reverend Tony would also cut in half the time required to process new drugs such as the miracle drug Placibox™©, The Magenta Pill, It Cures Everything™ which will be grandfathered from these fabulous new regulations.

3. To conclude the War on Iraq™, The Reverend Tony suggests . . . . .

Sorry but you'll have to come by Matt's tonight for The Rest of The Story™. Margs early, margs often. Buon Natale, The Reverend Tony

December 23, 2005

Greeting and felicitations,

January 29, 2006 begins the Year of the Dog so please join The Lady Claire and The Reverend Tony™ in San Francisco for the Chinese New Year Parade, Saturday, February 11, 2006 courtesy of Southwest Airlines™. This is the 60th year for The Dogs who were the very first of the Baby Boomer™ generation and are responsible, right or wrong, for our last two Pepsidents™.

Lady Claire is really sick of Nutria™ even the pate' and she will not even consider the latest creation from The Kitchens of The Reverend Tony™, that being Vealtria where we keep the Nutria™ in small cages so they cannot move which makes the meat sooooo tender and juicy, if yo know what I mean.

So who cares what Lady Claire thinks, this Christmas I know that Santa Claus™ will really enjoy a fried Nutria™ along with a nice glass of Merlot.

The Reverend Tony™ has this last parting thought for this holiday season “Oh please God, let the Longhorns™ cover.” Good night and good riddance.

December 30, 2005

New Year's Eve Eve

There will be No Matt's tonight because Lady Claire is undergoing a voluntary lobotomy and will be in rehabilitation from 4 to 6 weeks.

The Reverend Tony had planned to celebrate New Year's Eve Eve at Lady S and Prince C and unveil the world premier of The Reverend Tony's White Tiger line of formal wear but alas.

Rose Bowl Game Prediction

Bet early and bet often because you heard it straight from The Reverend Tony Players Club that The University of Texas™ Longhorns will win if they can score more points than The Trojans™ from The University of Southern California. And can you believe that USC would allow a condom maker to acquire the naming rights to their team without first offering those naming rights to The Reverend Tony™ who would change their team name to either “The Oprahs™” or “The Tony Blair Project™”.

New Year's Eve

Please celebrate responsibly and if you are pulled over by A Copper™ just remember to say “Occifer, I happen to be a close personal friend of Rick Perry™” and things will turn out just fine.

New Year's Resolutions

1. No mention of The Cherebum™ until after Valentine's Day because the supply has mysteriously dried up.
2. No mention of Nutria™, fried or otherwise, until Hormel™ agrees to market Spamtria™.
3. No mention of Spud Dick™ in the presence of Mistress M.

New Orleans™

If you are looking for something to do with that gift card from Barnes y Noble or Amazon The Reverend Tony recommends Williams-Sonoma New Orleans: Authentic Recipes Celebrating The Foods Of the World as much for the beautiful photography of our lost city as for the food memories.

And by the way, on page 109 is a photo of the bellman at the Royal Sonesta who found our cab to the airport and on pages 136-137 is Galatoire's main room featuring Bob, our waiter at the last meal. Galatoires reopens on New Years Day.

Feliz Año Nuevo, Nouvelle Année Heureuse, Nuovo Anno Felice

Ano Novo Feliz, Glückliches Neues Jahr, Glad Ny År, Gung Hay Fat Choy

All aboard the LovePeace Train, Woo, Woo, The Reverend Tony
