

January 5, 2007

Greetings,

First, The Reverend Tony™ would like to apologize to everyone for the quality of last week's broadcast of Who Wants To Be The Executioner™ which did draw a 24 share of the coveted 18-35 broadcast market in Baghdad making it the highest rated episode since the Tom DeLay execution.

What happened was that at the last minute The Texas Department of Corrections was replaced by Haliburton, Bonga and Root who completely botched the execution but were paid handsomely for it.

The Reverend Tony™'s Predictions for 2007

The Surge™ becomes The Drive for Five™, yes ladies and germs, 5 years at war with Iraq and Afghanistan, just long enough to hand it off to the next president, now that's what The Reverend Tony™ calls a Decider™.

The Dallas Cowboys™ win the NCAA football championship in a thrilling 29-28 come from ahead victory over Boise State, which The Reverend Tony™ did not realize was a state until they thumped my Sooners™. The Cowboys are now promoted back into the NFL, replacing The Miami Dolphins™ who were relegated fulfilling Nick Saban's dream of coaching in college again.

Barak Obama changes his middle name from Hussein to Walker in a feeble attempt to woo the religious right. Not to be outdone, Hillary Clinton insists on being called "Grandma".

Vice President Dick "Biggus" Cheney accidentally clubs, nearly to death, a woman in his party while on a baby seal hunt at a private resort in Alaska. The victim, identified as "one of them Kennedys" issued a statement taking full blame for the accidental attack by the VP saying "I shouldn't have come up on Biggus while he was in the heat of clubbing."

And saving the best for last, The President and Mrs. Bush will serve Chateaubriand á NuPosCoon™ at a state dinner and rodeo out back at The White House™ for Russian Premiér Gary Pootin' and his wife Doris.

Matt's margs at 8 so don't be late. I remain The Reverend Tony™

January 12, 2007

Greetings,

The Texas legislature, aka Capital City Hair Club™, convened this week so Vice President Dick "Biggus" Cheney shot 60+ birds at 10th and Congress, just two blocks from said capital, to promote open season. You may have seen the story.

http://www.statesman.com/search/content/gen/ap/TX_Downtown_Shutdown.html

A spokesman for Biggus revealed that the VP sometimes suffers from restless trigger finger syndrome (RTFS), which can only be treated by shooting anything that moves and is aggravated by a full moon, so please keep that in mind when in his company.

The Drive for Five™ kicked off this week. President Numnutz mobilized the Kilgore Rangerettes and parasailed them into the Green Zone. Fortunately for the Rangerettes Biggus was being kept busy in Austin.

At Matt's tonight The Reverend Tony™ will be collecting donations to build the World's Largest Margarita™ so please drop by and say Hi. Construction by Haliburton,

Ngozi and Rot.™

PS - The Golden Globes are Monday night a the line in Vegas is only 3-1 that Borat will escort Pamela Anderson to the festivities. Bet early, bet often. Ciao Bello, The Reverend Toné Toné

January 19, 2007

Greetings,

Thanks to everyone for helping The Reverend Tony™ raise almost €200 to build the World's Largest Margarita™ leaving us just a bit short. Please send donations to P.O. Box BR549, Lagos, TX 78763, payable to Ngozi Brothers, LLC.

No Matt's El Rancho tonight as The Reverend Tony™ has the walking pneumonia and the boogie woogie flu and does not want to inflict this on any of our congregation, Lady Claire and Mistress M will have happy hour at the Mansion at Judges Hill and will accept donations too. <http://www.mansionatjudgeshill.com/>

BIRD KILL UPDATE - The Texas A&M avian pathology lab has determine that the birds died a natural death having been all strangled in their sleep and branded with "VP-DC", a sure sign of Biggus' involvement. Is there nothing he won't kill?

The Drive for Five™ has been replaced with This Time For Sure™ and The Reverend Tony™ is just waiting for What, Me Worry™. Pray for peace, be the ball and see your future, I remain The Reverend Tony™.

January 29, 2007

Greetings,

How quick we forget. President Numnutz gave his State of the Union speech and spoke not one word about the disaster on our Gulf coast left in the wake of Katrina and Rita. Nothing about New Orleans, Biloxi, Gulfport, Port A, nothing. It did not make his domestic agenda.

"War in Space™" must be on his reading list too, not the Tolstoy novel but the Chinese parable about shooting down an obsolete weather satellite now orbiting earth, thereby challenging US to do the same quickly escalating into "War in Space™". And to succeed and win in this "War in Space™" we would need a new, fabulous weapon, drum roll please, ta da

Super Plasma Anit-Monkey Missile™

A Scam of the Week™

The Reverend Tony ©2007

Who would have thought that War in Space™ would allow Haliburton+Ngozi™ to finish up the contract for the Super Plasma Anit-Monkey Missile™ project (code name SPAMM™) to the tune of €20 billion for the first virtual prototype and of course the second key word after "€20 billion" is "virtual".

This part is my favorite. Haliburton+Ngozi™ will not actually make a prototype SPAMM™ and shoot down our own obsolete weather satellite but will instead produce a virtual SPAMM™ prototype and test it on our own virtual obsolete weather satellite, thereby challenging THEM to do the same. Is this virtual war great or what?

At Matt's El Rancho tonight, The Reverend Tony™ will convene a meeting of PETGWB™ to raise funds for a virtual lobotomy on Numnutz post haste. Toujours, Le Reverend Toné Toné.

February 2, 2007

Greetings,

A full moon and the first of the month, spread garlic everywhere.

Today you will receive from The Reverend Tony™ the answer to the proverbial question which came first, the chicken or the egg? Now aren't you glad to receive this screed every week?

The answer is found in The Bible™ as are many other answers such as what kinds of locust, cricket and grasshopper are ok to eat and which are not, see Leviticus 11.20-22.

The answer to "which came first the chicken or the egg" is found at Genesis 1.20-22. More mysteries of the universe to be revealed soon.

I tried hard, real hard no to comment on President Numnutz this week but I did hear him say "We have got to help the Iraqis stop the secretarian violence in Baghdad," which is priceless.

SUPER BOWL - The Bears™ play the Colts™, an old school tussle. The Reverend Tony™'s recommends betting the over and serving this recipe which contains no Nutria™

Chili, Cincinnati Style

©1983, Rik Winky Wehmeier

1 quart water
2 lbs ground beef, you cannot substitute Nutria™ because it will not boil
2 medium onions, rough chopped
4 cloves garlic
2 T red wine vinegar
16 oz tomato sauce
10 whole all spice corns
3 bay leaves
5 whole cloves
1 t red pepper
2 T Worcestershire sauce
1 t cumin
1 1/2 t salt
4 T chili powder
1 t cinnamon
1 piece Baker's bitter chocolate

Boil ground beef in water until beef separates into a fine texture, about 30 minutes. Drain boiled beef in colander and rinse. Notice how much beef fat washes off!

In a quart of water add the beef and remaining ingredients, stir to blend, bring to a boil, then simmer under splatter screen for 3 hours plus, stirring and savoring every 10-15 minutes.

Serve over well cooked spaghetti with finely grated cheddar cheese, minced onions and oyster crackers. It looks like this when presented but maybe with not quite so much cheese. Enjoy

No scam this week, secretarian violence having the fill the bill. Margs for all, The Reverend Tony™ is way out.

February 9, 2007

Greetings,

Norbit will eliminate any chance that Eddie Murphy had to win an Oscar this year. And if you elect The Reverend Tony™ as President, I will immediately issue an executive order prohibiting the use of fat suits in the movies and the television, like the one Julia Roberts wore in America's Sweethearts. Fat suits are not only stupid looking but they take away work from legitimate fat actors.

Effective January 1, 2007, the PATRIOT Act™ requires that you have The Code Word™ for admittance to Matt's, something about The Reverend Tony™'s presidential candidacy . . .NOT !!!

Therefore, to assure your place at The Table™, please reply to this email by 3pm today to receive free and at no charge, The Code Word™ as required by said PATRIOT Act™. Peace, love and margaritas, I will remain, The Reverend Tony™

February 12, 2007

Greetings,

The Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show begins tonight with the Best in Group at 7:00 pm on the USA network, cable 66 for those here in Austin.

Who can forget JR's victory dance after winning in 2001? What a wonderfully fabulous Bichon's Frisese. He was certainly The Thrill of Victory™ and got all the treats.

Tonight is judging for Working, Terrier, Toy, Non-Sporting, like JR, and tomorrow night is Sporting, Hound, Herding, with Best in Show beginning about 8pm central time, enjoy, TRT

February 16, 2007

Greetings,

Scam of the Week™

Coinciding with the Year of the Boar, Texas Governor Rick "Buoni Capelli" Perry will issue an Executive Order, effective immediately, requiring every living resident of Texas, regardless of race, color, creed or country of origin, to take PlaciBox©™, the Magenta pill, It Cures Everything!!! twice a day without end, Amen. For deceased Texans, taking PlaciBox©™ is optional.

Danny Ngozi, President and CFO of NgoziHBR Druggists™, promoter of PlaciBox©™, will simultaneously announce that this contract will finally allow him and his family to acquire a small country in the European Union, which is nice.

Please visit PlaciBox.com and learn all about the wonderfully therapeutical effects of PlaciBox©™, the Magenta pill, It Cures Everything!!!

The Year of the Boar

The Year of the Boar begins Sunday, so party Saturday night like it's 4705 which it is in China. If you were born between January 22, 1947 and February 9, 1948, you reach 60 this year and complete the cycle of the Fire Boar, like Hillary Rodman Clinton, so celebrate good times and wear a bit of red to keep away evil spirits.

Your chinese fortune for the new year is as follows: from Chinese Astrology by Man-Ho Kwok, ©1997 Eddison Sadd

Handle your money carefully during the year and avoid any financial risks. Pay attention to your health and take the time to rest or pursue hobbies; if there are any warning signs which indicate ill health, make sure you do not ignore them. You may need to be patient and perseverant at the beginning of the year to avoid potential disagreements in later months. Do not be hasty in actions or decisions relating to your family.

Peace, love and margaritas, I remain The Reverend Tony™

February 23, 2007

Greetings,

What a weekend in Austin beginning this afternoon at 2p with Barak Obama at Auditorium Shores and continuing through Sunday with the long awaited demolition of the Intel building at 7am followed by The Oscars™ at 7pm. Politics, things blowing up real good and fashion farts, is this a great country or what?

Code Word™ for Matt's tonight is Bohica.

As usual, The Reverend Tony™ will divine the Oscar™ winners without having seen any of the nominated films or performances.

Best Supporting Actor and Actress - who cares, next nominee

Best Song - Anything not from Dreamgirls

Best Directing - United 93

Best Actor - Idi Amin Dada

Best Actress - Penelope Cruz who also wins best dressed, if you know what I mean

Best Picture - Little Miss Sunshine

PS - The over/under on Al Gore riding to/from The Oscars™ in a limo is way over.

Scam of the Week™ - It is about time that the Intel building was blowed up real good. The project went south in early 2001, about the same time President Numnutz™ stole office. Just a coincidence? NOT!!!

Peace, love and safe travels to Dennis Johnson. He could sure play ball for a freckle-faced, red-headed black guy, RIP. I remain, The Reverend Tony™

PPS - The Reverend Tony™ will be performing three show Saturday morning at UT Law School, at 9a, 10..30a, and noon and admission is FREE plus S&H.

March 2, 2007

Greetings,

Full moon tomorrow so it's Matt's tonight and The Code Word™ is Fubar. First full moon of the new year.

Scam of the Week™

The Intel building did not blow up real good at all. In fact it seems like it would have been a lot easier and more fun to take it apart with one of those swinging ball thingys AND they could have raffled off whacks at it like the frog/chicken at the State Fair. The Reverend Tony™ would have paid for three whacks for sure.

Second Scam of the Week™

Vote for Sundance Head as American Idol if only because his daddy is Roy Head as in Treat Her Right and Mustang Sally, a great songs! Also Kellie Pickler has used her Idol fame and fortune to acquire a new set of boobs, way to go Kellie!!!

Peace, love, bacon and soul, I remain The Reverend Tony™

March 9, 2007

Greetings,

Big week in Austin with the boys basketball finals in town. These are the four finalists in Class A, New Deal, Martin's Mill, Clyde Eula and Thorndale. Neiman Marcus also opens at the Domain if anyone is interested.

Movie Review

Tonight 300 opens, the same story as the 1962 helmet/sandal epic The Three Hundred Spartans starring Richard Egan as King Leonidas. That movie made a big impression on me, all of those handsome, strong men in togas still sends a shiver through the kneebones. Seems if did the same for Frank Miller on whose 1999 graphic novel 300 is based.

You remember the great story, a Spartan warrior would come back from war victorious or on his shield. And the Spartans were all gay, not that there's anything wrong with that.

Naked warriors, much blood, arms, legs, heads and every other body part chopped off, everybody dies in the end. The French will love it. The Reverend Tony™ says 6 Stars, check it out and take the kids.

Scam of the Week™

Why does President Numnutz need a presidential library when almost everything in it will be sealed for over 100 years. At least Bill Clinton made the Motel Room Key Room open from day one and anyone can get access to the Matchbook Vault by written request, but the phone numbers on the covers have been redacted to protect the privacy of the ladies and the few gentlemen involved.

Matt's tonight, we celebrate the birthday of dear Lady Gloria first with Cuervo shots and XX chasers at The Elephant Room™, one of the Top Ten jazz venues according to Wynton Marsalis which is nice.

(http://www.usatoday.com/travel/destinations/10great/2007-02-15-jazz-clubs_x.htm)

Then if Lady G is willing, onward to Matt's for margs and fried shrimp or Aguas. Peace, love and geaux Clyde Eula, take State, I remain, The Reverend Tony™

PS - Password tonight is Topsy Wacky

March 16, 2007

Greetings,

The day after the Ides of March, the day before St.Patrick's Day and SXSW is in town. Fortunately the full moon is still two weeks away or there would be even more unexplainable tattoos, but just wait.

300 was big box office and if you want to see it, please do so while it is in the theatre, double up on the buttered popcorn and take the kids.

El Presidente Numnutz y su esposa, Laura, just returned from a tour of available retirement properties in Brazil, Uruguay, Columbia, Guatemala and Mexico. Uruguay or "You're a guy" according to Numnutz, appears the front runner being the more proximate to Argentina where the best surgeons are available 24/7, no questions asked, only dollars.

Scam of the Week™

Dick "Biggus" Cheney addressed the American Israel Public Policy Affairs Committee 2007 Policy Conference and had this to say among other gems and The Reverend Tony is not making this up but wishes it was.

"The only option for our security and survival is to go on the offensive, facing the threat directly, patiently and systematically, until the enemy is destroyed.

(Applause.) Read the entire transcript at:

<http://www.prnewswire.com/cgi-bin/stories.pl?ACCT=104&STORY=/www/story/03-12-2007/0004544457&EDATE=>

Excuse me Biggus, but I thought we've had only one enemy since about 9.11.01, that enemy being Osama bin Laden? A blind dog with a man who cannot smell would have caught and killed that varmint by now.

What did not make the transcript but agents of The Reverend Tony were able to record was Biggus leading the assembled and huddled masses in the Benediction, Glory Be.

Congregation: "Glory be to the Father"

Biggus: Ronald Reagan

Congregation: "And to the Son"

Biggus: George W

Congregation: "And to the Holy Ghost"

Biggus: Me

Congregation: "As it was in the beginning

Biggus: Iran/Contra

Congregation: "Is now and ever shall be"

All: War without end, Amen, Amen

As for me, I'll settle for "Margs without end," and a big Amen to that, I remain The Reverend Tony

Speaking of Matt's El Rancho, be early or be late because The Horns play NMSU at 6.30p. Password tonight is "STFUD" , Peace

March 23, 2007

Greetings,

Sunday is the 30th running of the Capitol 10,000 and The Reverend Tony™ will again be at Enfield where Windsor intersects passing out Krispy Kreme™ donuts fortified with PlaciBox©™, the Magenta pill, It Cures Everything!!! to whatever fool wants one. Swizzles may also be served if you be cute.

The Reverend Tony™ did not run in that first 10,000 and hasn't since being passed in the final half mile by a woman who was about to deliver. I do have certain standards.

World News - Bob Woolmer, the British head coach of the Pakistan national cricket team, was strangled to death in his Jamaican hotel room after his Tallywhackers lost to minnow Ireland which just took up cricket last year, it being an English game and all. Everyone of the Tallywhackers is a suspect along with Dick "Biggus" Cheney which seems strange but probably true. Who knew cricket could stir such emotions. Read about it in the London Times and enjoy the writing if not the story.

<http://www.timesonline.co.uk/tol/sport/cricket/article1556308.ece>

Matt's tonight may feature the return of the Sharps from a "vacation" to Italy where they were stranded in Rome on account of bad weather last weekend, if one can be stranded in Rome. Code word tonight is WIJG, Peace, love, margs, I remain The Reverend Tony™

March 30, 2007

Greetings,

Scam of the Week - Please sit before reading further. A Numnutz has finally joined the military. Yes, it is true, George P. Numnutz,

"has been selected as one of 15 prospective ensigns for the intelligence unit of the Navy reserves. He and the other members of the Class of 2007 will be sworn in this year, Lt. Cmdr. Bill Schroeder of the Navy Reserve Intelligence Command in Ft. Worth said Wednesday. They will go through a two-week officer indoctrination school, a year of Navy basic intelligence training and be assigned to Navy reserve intelligence units close to their homes. Navy intelligence officers collect and analyze information and provide guidance to help war fighters make decisions critical on the battlefield, Schroeder said."

The Reverend Tony™'s translation - P. gets to wear a uniform. Read the entire story at <http://www.foxnews.com/story/0,2933,260399,00.html>, Fox News, Fair and Balanced or Hair and Ballast? Also the Navy in Fort Worth providing help to war fighters on the battlefield from their homes doesn't sound quite right to me.

At the Capitol 10K last Sunday, The Reverend Tony™ passed out three dozen Krispy Kreme™ donuts fortified with PlaciBox©™, the Magenta pill, It Cures Everything!!!, and no deaths have yet been attributed.

Matt's Famous El Rancho - Code Word for entry tonight is BUS and no one has yet deciphered last week's Code Word, WIJG. Please remember that a top shelf marg awaits the first five to decipher each week's Password. War without End, Amen, The Reverend Tony™

PS - Coming next week The Reverend Tony™ and Ngozi BR introduces the US of A to The Baby-Klappe, in use in Germany since the 1100s and now sweeping the UK.

Read all about it at

April 6, 2007

Greetings,

Tonight at Matt's is an open casting call for The 300 Lesbos, the latest helmet and sandal epic from Ngozi/DramWorks pictures. To these ladies PMS means "poor men suffer". Once synchronized watch out for that one week a month when they just go berserk.

And armed with the Do-All Double Full Cock Trap, the latest from Winchester Ngozi, The 300 Lesbos can't be beat.

So butch up Sally and bring your favorite flannel. War without end, I remain The Reverend Tony™

Password for Matt's tonight is BOB,

April 13, 2007

Greetings,

Kurt Vonnegut, sunrise November 11, 1922, sunset April 11, 2007, introduced The Reverend Tony™ to the concept of god the utterly indifferent, arguing that god is either intimately involved in every aspect of every person's life or is not and Kurt came down for not. I guess he's going to find out now.

My first Vonnegut was Welcome to the Monkey House which I chose from the reading list only because of the title and it still delights. So The Reverend Tony™ advises that you read some from your favorite Vonnegut this weekend to keep his spirit with us a bit longer.

Scam of the Week™

As many of you may know our friend and local Don Imus impersonator on KLBJ-FM's morning show, Dale Dudley is getting married soon, so tonight at Matt's The Reverend Tony™ will be soliciting tax deductible contributions for a Cherubum™ to give Dale and his lovely bride Amanda as a wedding present. A doctor's prescription is also necessary so if you be a doctor licensed in the US of A, then bring your prescription pad and your first three margs are on The Reverend Tony™.

For the ultimate in colonic hydration, try the Cherubum™, and "experience the difference internal cleansing makes". Made in South Austin near Matt's. Fits most toilets. Dry clean only. Visit their website at <http://www.cherubum.com/servlet/StoreFront>

My two cents on the Don Imus controversy is that he may be the first person in history to violate the maxim "the only thing worse than bad publicity is no publicity."

John Kelso had a great idea in today's Spaceman, give the United Negro College Fund a portion of the $50,000,000 Imus brought in for his employers last year, that is MILLIONS!!! check it out at

<http://www.statesman.com/news/content/news/stories/local/04/13/13kelso.html>

Also at Matt's tonight and in celebration of Friday the 13th, the queen mum her own self, Gloria de El Reno will appear which means the subjects of politics, religion and sex are off limits. It should be a quiet night at Matt's.

Password for entry tonight is "Bald Headed Honky". Margs for all and all for margs, War without end, amen, I remain The Reverend Tony™

April 20, 2007

Greetings,

At Matt's tonight, The Reverend Tony™ will reveal many of Karl Rove's missing emails including this interesting one from Representative Mark Foley (TG for Top Gun) who resigned because of the recent House page scandal to Karl Rove (BB for Blg Bottom). "Spanky" refers to Harrison "Spanky" McBee, IV, a new, fresh page from Vicksburg, Mississippi.

"Hey, BB, heard you and Spanky were clubbing last night, how were cocktails?" ;) ;), TG"

Only at Matt's tonight can you find out how Big Bottom replied unless you come to Matt's tonight.

In more Matt's news, Moe and Joe were the cover of XLent in this week's Spaceman. They are so Hollywood. <http://www.austin360.com/arts/content/xl/index.html>
Password for entry tonight is "Kitty Carlisle".

The gossip around our water cooler this week was, of course, what happened to Sanjaya on American Idol? Did he get Constantined or did Fox intentionally block the phone banks from India?

Who cares, but The Reverend Tony™ predicts a noticeable drop off the in ratings and share for American Idol. And The Reverend Tony™ would also bet that Simon has Sanjaya's rights for 3+ years.

Scam of the Week - Texas has already passed the "King of the Castle" bill which allows you to shoot an intruder first and ask questions later like "Is that you honey?"

Now these doofi want to extend the waiting period before a divorce be final from 60 days to 2 years unless both spouses agree to take a 10 hour counseling course about how to make it work which reduces the waiting period to 6 months.

Hey Doofi, if you don't want people to get divorced then don't issue them marriage licenses!!!

POLITICS ALERT - READ NO FURTHER UNLESS YOU ARE A SPINELESS LIBERAL BASTARD OR BITCH

New League Records - This Wednesday at least 171 civilian noncombatants were killed in Bagdhad easily surpassing the 137 killed on February 3 and bringing this week's total to 266, another new record and we still have 3 days left. The Surge is working, thank you Dick "Biggus" Cheney. PS - We reported 43 of our own dead last week, pretty close to our weekly record too.

Margs for all and all for margs, War without end, amen, I remain The Reverend Tony™

April 27, 2007

Greetings,

Today Frank W. Trapp, Esq. turns 60 which is the new 30™. Frank is Belmont's husband and the second most famous football player ever to come out of Philadelphia, MS, the first being Marcus Dupree, at least according to Willie Morris (Page 32, The Courting of Marcus Dupree, Doubleday, 1983) So margs up to Frank, You Go Guy!!!!

War Without End, Amen™

Secretary of Steaks Condoleezza Rice-Pilaf stopped off Wednesday at NATO headquarters in Oslo, on her way to Fashion Week in Milan, to announce that the USofA will deploy ballistic missile interceptors in Poland to defend against attacks from Iran and North Korea and build a radar base in The Czech Republic™ to monitor transmissions from HBO and Starzz. The vote carried 1-27, the USofA being the lone deciding vote. I love democracy.

Movie Review

Long time since but Dirty Dancing is back in selected theaters May 1 and 2 celebrating it's 20th anniversary. Hard to believe it has been 20 years and her nose was still her nose.

Also released then were Bull Durham, Raising Arizona, Dangerous Liaisons and A Fish Called Wanda. Now those are movies. Wow, just checked and Uma turns 37 Sunday too!!!

Password for entry to Matt's tonight is TDF. Peace, love, miss you, call me back, I remain The Reverend Tony™

PS - Scam of the Week™ - How many points could you win at Scrabble™ by using Condoleezza? The first to answer correctly will receive a free lifetime supply of PlaciBox©™, the Magenta pill, It Cures Everything!!!* Ciao, ciao

*plus $29.99 per month shipping and handling for the rest of your life and the lives of your next three generations who will also receive the same deal/scam. PlaciBox©™ is a suppository. Enjoy

Scam of the Week™

Any week with a full moon presents many opportunities to scam and this week was a doozy.

Up for the nomination are the Beezely-Dudley wedding with none other than Osama bin Dover as an usher, the Kentucky Derby and another chance to play Happy Horse Racing (attached) or Law Week when every lawyer in the country waives the fee for the entire week. NOT.

And the winner is Osama bin Dover at the wedding.

Tonight the congregation is invited to convene first at The Elephant Room and do not be put off by the line waiting to get into Kyoto for free bait. Then on to Matt's and the Password for entry is "OU #1". War without end, miss you call me, I remain The Reverend Tony™

Where does The Queen of England get all of those hats and the parallel question, what will be the attire of the monarchy with a King Charles and Queen Horse Face?

Scam of the Week™

Casting continues at Matt's tonight for Bridget Jones Diary Six, Beyond Thunderdome. This film noir is set after Armageddon and Bridget is still overweight, depressed and horny and her boss is a real shit.

MOSQUITO REPELLANT - The Reverend Tony™ learned this week that chrysanthemums are natural mosquito repellants and they are pretty too. So plant chrysanthemums in all of those places than can breed mosquitos.

There for all to see

With that poem, The Reverend Tony™ announces that from here on out all political and social screed will appear on WorldWithoutEndAmen.com but the humor screed will remain here at TheReverendTony.com.

MUSIC ALERT - The All American Rejects will perform in the Plaza on Today this morning. Strange but true that a song like Dirty Little Secret came from a band out of Stillwater, Oklahoma.

MOVIE ALERT - Pan's Labyrinth just released on DVD and it is only just a spectacular movie in every way. And don't be put off by the Eyes in the Hands Guy who is only in one scene that does involve olives but I shall go no further lest to spoil your treat.

MATT'S EL RANCHO - The T. Bone Pickens Foundation will announce a €25 million investment in PlaciBox©™, the Magenta pill, It Cures Everything!!! and T. Greetings, American Idol finished up this week, AC Milan won the Champions League, and Mike The Tiger died.

Mike The Tiger was in fact Mike V, LSU mascot since about 1990 and the second important tiger to move on in the last year, the other being Lady Kim who first predicted that Ryan Perrilloux would get kicked off the team, which he did. You go Kim!

This means that all of our LSU friends are hurting real bad. So take a moment and send them all of the good vibrations that you can. Hold That Tiger, Amen

Jerry Falwell died too and it's about time. But one thing that The Reverend Tony™ did admire about Reverend Jerry™, he did understand what it took to get them in the pews.

After the sermon, give them fried chicken and the sweet tea. Get them praying then get them peeing. 20th century version of water into wine.

While on religion consider Matthew 23, verse 24, "You blind guides, straining out a gnat and swallowing a camel." The first and best comment about a legislature.

Sort of like Parkinson's 3rd law, the Law of the Committee. "For god so loved the world , he did not send a committee."

Scam of the Week™

Toll Voting and The Reverend Tony™ is not talking about a poll tax. What The Reverend Tony™ is talking about is having the politicians pay a toll to each voter with the candidate offering the most being elected. €20 toll per vote minimum. As The Reverend Jerry™ taught us, give them free fried chicken and they will come.

Some have you have asked why no mention of Lady Claire? Well, it seems that she grew tired of all the mowing and yard work and the prospect of another lobotomy, and decided to retire.

So if any of the congregation know of any available women with a mower who have not yet had a second lobotomy, please have her send a recent photo of the mower to The Reverend Tony™ at P.O. Box BR549, Lagos, TX, 66666.

War Without End, Amen, I remain The Reverend Tony™

Greetings,

Scam of the Week™

Even though The Reverend Tony™ has always lied to you and told you big bogus things, this week brings two legitimate Scams.

First, wouldn't it be nice to be able to monitor your teenager's cell phone location, a teenager will never part with a cell phone. Now you can. With SafeTeen™ you can enable the GPS function on your teen's cell phone and monitor the location on any internet connection.

The Reverend Tony™ is also promoting MosquitoNix™ which eliminates those pesky mosquitos from around the yard and especially the pool. Three times a day, an Aggie appears and whacks with a hammer any mosquito he can find. And it comes with room and board for the Aggie. MosquitoNix™ is a joint venture between TAMU and HalliburtonNgoziCheney and all proceeds benefit PETGWB (People for the Ethical Treatment of George W. Bush)

War Without End, Amen™

This week Reverend Tony™ presents Point #3 - Health Care

Matt's El Rancho™

Last week we ended up at The Cloak Room after Matt's and witnessed the greatest ventriloquism act since Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy but instead saw Terry Keel and Speaker Craddick as the puppet. High political drama, full of sound and fury, signifying absolutely nothing.

And when the puppetmaster/parliamentarian began referring to Mason's Rules of Jams and Jellies, The Reverend Tony™ just had to say good night.

Pass word tonight is Blue Moon which it is. Peace, love and margaritas, I remain The Reverend Tony™

PS - With a full moon and all of the bikers in the world in town, The Reverend Tony™ reminds that when your are pulled over just tell the occifer that you know The Reverend Tony™ and everything will be just fine.

Greetings,

Surfs up in Austin, flooding big time, Lake Travis rises 11 feet in one day, Paris Hilton is released from prison, Ben Phelps™ gets a Purple Heart™ and a full moon. Is this a great country or what?

Brother Charlie's son, Ben Phelps got whacked by a roadside bomb, the same kind that killed four others in his detail the week before.

But Ben only got a severed artery in his hand which is nice, then surgery in Germany which required Congressional intervention, now rehab at home with his lady which is very nice and then back to Iraq to finish out his Tour™ plus three months. Is this a great country or what?

And speaking of a great country, Vice Resident Dick "Biggus" Cheney announced that he is not a member of the Executive branch, apparently in complete ignorance of Article II of the Constitution.

I guess Biggus will be giving up Airforce 2, all that neat Secret Service protection, the medivac unit, etc,

And where do you think Biggus will be at 12:01 am, Tuesday, January 20, 2009? Certainly not within the jurisdiction of US, and probably sitting on his throne at Haliburton new headquarters in Dubai.

So Biggus if you have the balls for it and The Reverend Tony™ suspects that you do not, then meet me tonight at 8pm in the patio at Matt's, and I'll show you who can piss farther into the wind. Peace, love and le sexe avant les escargots, I remain The Reverend Tony™

July 6, 2007

Greetings,

See what I mean about a full moon. But by only commuting Libby instead of pardoning, the president holds the possibility of a pardon over Libby's neck like the Guillotine™ so that he won't talk, because Libby will talk someday, just like Liddy, North, Dean, etc.

But not to worry Scooter because the next Democrat president will pardon you post haste so that you can tell your story to Dan Rather.

Summer time and the living is easy, the fish are jumping and the river is high. Mother Nature's little reminder.

Fortunately HDTV broadcast the entire Concert for Princess Diana reminding me that she really was something else, one for the ages, and that my peoples still cannot dance.

It also was a reminder that Rod Stewart is not dead yet and one of his great summertime songs, Lost in You, from the summer of 1988. Super video too.

Scam of the Week™ - Poleaties.com premieres this week. A new and fabulous work-out routine combining the best of pilates and pole dancing. Within weeks you too will have great legs, buttocks and abs, an 8 pack so to speak. Comes with instructional DVD and self-installing pole.

Book Recommendations - With Santa Anna in Texas by Pena and Dale

Carnegie's masterpiece, How to Win Friends and Influence People, which is well worth a reread.

Jose Enrique De La Pena's diary of the fateful campaign in Texas of 1836 is fascinating as an account of the events and as a travelogue of The State of Willie, from the Colorado river south that is.

Forests, pastures, fields of flowers, rivers, torrential during the rainy season which it was in 1836. Also a painful reminder of the realities of war too especially unintended consequences like having way more prisoners than guards.

At Matt's tonight PETGWB* will hold a big birthday bash for #43 who celebrates his 61st today - NOT. Password for Matt's tonight is Burning Love.

Greetings

Friday the 13th, hug a black kitty today. Good news, bad news and sad news, about par for the course.

The Good News is that Josh Trapp has returned from Iraq unharmed, hip, hip, hooray!!! This week's over/under is May 13, 2008 for the birth of baby Trapp #1. Bet over, Bet under, and Bet often at TheReverendTony.com.

The Bad News is that David Beckham is coming to bury Major League Soccer and there was much rejoicing.

The Sad News - Claudia Alta "Lady Bird" (Taylor) Johnson, sunrise December 22, 1912, sunset July 11, 2007. It is impossible to imagine a world without her charm and grace, flowers did indeed bloom where she tread.

Her name never did catch on like Jacqueline did, probably because Lady Bird was so scary looking especially when she smiled. Fly away Lady Bird. Rest in peace.

Password for entry to Matt's tonight is Jody and then to The Paramount for Roky Erickson's birthday party with a performance by Roky and The Explosives.

Roky Erickson is the original psychedelic singer/songwriter and a total paranoid schizophrenic of the very, very undifferentiated type. But Roky can sing and he did write the lyric "When you have ghosts, you have everything". Amazingly, he is mostly cured now, he got off the medicines and the sugars.

Roky was in and out of Austin State Hospital frequently when the Reverend Tony™ was in charge of the mental health docket back in the late 70s early 80s. That was after the electroshock treatment. The Spaceman has his story in XLent this week.

Greetings,

WarWithoutEndAmen.com - Point #6, Pardon Scooter Libby

Scam of the Week™ - If FEMA keeps piling on, The Reverend Tony™ is going to yell calf-rope but toxic levels of formaldehyde gas in the trailers they gave the Katrina victims is a bit much don't even you think. Two dead and the disclosure of the problem suppressed for more than a year. About par for the course.

Movie Review - Talk to Me opens this week, the story of Petey Greene as portrayed by Don Cheadle.

For anyone living in Austin during the early days of cable TV, the late 70s, Petey Greene and Iris Chacon were enlightening. Petey was on BET and Iris on Univision, two of the 13 original cable stations in Austin.

Petey was The morning DJ in Washington DC when Martin Luther King, Jr. was shot in April 4, 1968 within a week after LBJ gave his "I will not accept" speech. One of the few acts of political courage in US history, not Solon but close I know exactly where I was when I heard that news, do you? Share your memories with an email to TheReverendTony@WarWithoutEndAmen.com

Those were crazy, crazy times, just go back and look at 1968, The Year of the Monkey, beginning with the Tet Offensive and ending with O.J. Simpson winning the Heisman trophy.

Lady Bird has left the building - While watching the family grieve, it dawned that one does not truly become an adult until one is orphaned. Until then you will always be someone's child even if you are almost 57 years old and live a thousand miles away. Think about it.

Grandmothers, what are they good for, evidently absolutely everything. The Reverend Tony™ is beginning to see anglos fighting over who gets grandmother, something the mexicans have been doing forever. Have you ever eaten any mexican grandmother's tamales that were not about an 11!

Grandmothers also have a special bond with her grandchildren probably because they have a common enemy if you know what I mean. The enemy of my enemy is my friend or why Sunni and Shia like shooting at US.

Matt's El Rancho - Last performance of The Reverend Tony™ for two weeks, the World Tour™ continues to Oklahoma next week to Save the Inheritance and Save the Cheerleaders. Then on to New Orleans to scout locations for Sex Before Dinner™.

Greetings,

Enjoy the full moon this weekend. Many of you new to this screed, have asked, "Who is The Reverend Tony™ and how can I help save The Cheerleaders™?"

The Reverend Tony™ was born in the lobby of the Royal Sonesta on Bourbon Street, New Orleans, Louisiana. I now live and work in a place I call Austin, Texas. Read the full story at TheReverendTony.com.

Everyone comes to Matt's El Rancho on Friday night to share a margarita and enjoy the company of fellow travelers on this spaceship we call earth. Guest hosts tonight are J Lo and Marc Anthony promoting their new movie. Password is Chocolate Rain.

HDTV - If you do not have a high definition television (HDTV), then you must get one right now, you will not believe how much fun NASCAR can be.

Lindsay Clubine™ is The Word™ on HDTV and host of "Get Out" where Lindsay and two more bikini models, model bikinis while swimming, tanning, being massaged sans top but tasteful, riding horses, bungee jumping, beach volleyball, eating bananas and all the fun, sexy things bikini models like to do, if you know what I mean. Catch Lindsay and The Bikini Models™ at 8:30 pm central time on HDNET, channel 1692 in Austin.

Scam of the Week™ - Barry "US" Bonds™ is about to break Hammerin' Hank Aaron's home run record of 755. But be it remembered that Mr. Aaron hit another 41 home runs before he retired.

So Barry, The Reverend Tony™ is calling you out. If you want to be the real home run king, let's see you hit 797 and break the record by 41 instead of 1.

No Matt's tonight as The Reverend Tony™ is off to Oklahoma visit with family. Peace, love and a little bit of soul, I remain The Reverend Tony™

August 3, 2007

Greetings,

The full moon was particularly deadly this time taking Bergman, Antonioni, Snyder and Zindler for whom there was much rejoicing in La Grange.

Marvin Zindler represents much of what is unlikable about television, radio and the media. Zindler was the original talking hairpiece proving once again the wisdom of Mencken's insight, "No one ever went broke underestimating the taste of the American public."

Scam of the Week - Tonight after Matt's please join us at an undisclosed location as The Reverend Tony™ presents French Poodle Fighting, direct from Gevaudan, FR.

Truth be told fighting french poodles never fight. When the hoods are removed they mostly start peeing like a good french poodle will do with the first to pee crowned Le Wiener.

You can also bet distance, volume and duration although the last two can be fudged by substituting warm water for foie gras in the diet of the fighting french poodle. Euros (€) only tonight.

Movie Review - Finally in Austin Talk to Me opens at the Arbor tonight. The story of Petey Greene, the original street DJ from DC whose efforts during the days after Martin Luther King, Jr. was assassinated prove that one man can make a difference.

Petey was also funny and for a time had a one hour talk show on BET back in the day when the river city had only 13 cable stations and Tom Snyder and his guests still smoked cigarettes on air.

View Petey showing how to eat a watermelon on YouTube.com, those were the days my friends we thought would never end, and if they do it's you own fault.

Password tonight is Keep it Real. Peace, love and watermelon, I remain The Reverend Tony™

Greetings,

If the new interrogation techniques are so effective and legal, then the Senate should test the effectiveness on Alberto Gonzales which reminds me of this little ditty.

Waterboarding™

(to the tune of Hokey Pokey)

© The Reverend Tony™, 2007

Dip Alberto in

Take Alberto out

Dip him in again
And shake him all about
Then you do the waterboarding
As you hang him upside down
That's when the truth comes out.

No Matt's tonight as The World Tour™ continues back to the city by the bay and I don't mean Baytown. The ABA convenes in SF this weekend and The Reverend Tony™ will convene at an undisclosed location, it seems they enjoy French Poodle fighting in the Bay area too, something about Barry Bonds, eh?

Important Safety Tip - When ordering Chinese and asked how hot, do NOT reply, "I'm from Texas so you can make it as hot as you like."

Pease, love and medium-white hot, I remain The Reverend Tony™

Greetings,

In another of his feeble attempts to save the world and the cheerleaders, President Numnutz has offered his daughter Jena in marriage to the son of a former lieutenant guvnor of Virginia and tobacco executive. The groom has agreed to change his surname to Bush and the bride will wear white. The Reverend Tony™ will not officiate.

Knowing that politics and women speak in code, please to the women of the congregation to help to the translation of the followings from Laura's spokeswoman Sally McDonough,

"No wedding date has been set." and

"There are no details to announce with regards to date, location or guests."

Add that the families have been expecting an announcement for 4 months, it sounds suspiciously pregnant with possibilities.

Women please to send your translations to

Scam of the week - The long term credit markets, especially subprime mortgages, are in the tank but the Administration will do nothing to help, as the Fed announced a .5% reduction in the prime rate. Je repose.

In a surprisingly lopsided vote, the ABA House of Delegates rejected "Waterboarding" to replace "Iron Maiden" as the ABA theme song and there was much rejoicing.

War Without End Amen™ - coming soon, Point 7 - Football Playoffs.

August 24, 2007

Greetings,

Just two years ago

New Orleans was laid to waste

And the world goes on

TGIF = Thank God It's Football - I think I just saw Brett Favre throw a touchdown pass to Ben Dover. But seriously folks, dateline Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Brian Thomas thought he was just in for a juicy burger at Henry Hudson's Pub when instead Sooner fan Allen Wayne Beckett almost ripped off his scrotum just because he was wearing a baby puke orange UT™ jersey. 60 stitches were required to reattach said scrotum. We ARE ready for some football.

<http://newsok.com/article/3108932/1187842091>.

Scam of the Week - New Orleans is not without hope. At Matt's tonight, The Reverend Tony™ will reveal plans for the world's first and finest French Poodle Fighting Arena to be constructed by Haliburton Ngozi and financed by a large forgivable loan from Countrywide Mutual, Dubai, N.A.

Skyboxes are available for purchase or lease with or without a Cherubum® Personal Hygiene System and each and every club level seat has a personalized ash tray.

Larry Craig "Bud" Melman, Senator from Idaho, is definitely old school so in the interest of educating the Boomers, The Reverend Tony™ reveals what's Out and what's In

Foot tapping

Ask "Are those Topsiders™ or Weejuns™?"

Topsiders = Top Gun

Bass™ Weejuns = Bottom Boy

Hand under stall

Opine "I sure wish I could smoke a cigar in here"

I guess the suggestion of waterboarding Alberto did the trick. If President Numnutz is a reader he should appoint Senator John "Children of the" Cornyn immediately as successor AG, then Rik "Buoni Capelli" Perry could appoint himself as Senator with David "Ducky" Dewhurst stepping up tall and blonde as governor. World peace for the children.

Scam of the Week - Tonight at Matt's, The Reverend Tony™ will be holding open auditions for "Nasty, Bad, Naughty Boy, The Musical" a swinging insight into the Bill Clinton presidency as told by Larry Craig "Bud" Melman

Joke of the Week - A country family was having about one child every 10-15 months and she had birthed plenty already so it was time for him to get fixed, as in neutered, gelded, enuched, deballed, castrated, bobbited as in John Wayne Bobbit.

He went to the doctor who explained the procedures that would make him impotent and incapable of making babies. He went home and told her and there was much rejoicing.

On the appointed day, he went to the doctor dressed in a tuxedo. The doctor having not seen this attire on a patient before, inquired, "Why are you wearing a tuxedo?"

And he replied "If you want to be impotent you got to look impotent."

Greetings,

The World Tour continues this weekend right here at the Austin City Limits music festival and hurricane. White Fags had to cancel their headline performance but at the last minute and at great expense, The Reverend Tony™ was able to book The Naughty, Bad, Nasty Boys (NBNB) featuring former Attorney General and US Senator John Ashcroft performing barber-rap in four part harmony.

Scam of the Week - OUrinals™ are available for a limited time only (see TRT 6.9.06). Send all of your money and a pre addressed, postage prepaid envelope to The Reverend Touchdown™, P.O. Box BR549, Crawford, Nigeria 66666.

Difference between US and EU - This week the New England Patriots and their head coach were fined a total of $750 thousand by the NFL for spying. Team McLaren was fined $50 million for spying by Formula One. That's $101 million 620 thousand US at yesterday's exchange rate.

Joke of the Week - Another reason to be a Democrat instead of a Republican is that Democrats have better sex. Have you ever heard of a great piece of elephant?

The Reverend Touchdown™'s Sweet Pick™ tomorrow is Central Florida plus 19.5 at home to Texas and take the under on 49.

September 21, 2007

Greetings,

The Reverend Touchdown™ was 50/50 last week, picking Central Florida to cover but missing the over, don't we all. This week's sweet pick is A&M to cover +3 at Miami and take the over of 46.

Rice and Ink Fest are in Austin this weekend so be early, come loud and stay late because the Marching Owl Band will be performing selections from Jailhouse Rock and Dragnet. Texas covers -38.5 and the 65 over. Book 'em Horns!!!

At Ink Fest, The Reverend Tony's Home Tadoo and Piercing Parlor will premiere the Larry Craig Bud Melman line of tats and holes.

Scam of the Week - The Ruskies announced limited production of The Father of All Bombs (FOAB) which makes our Mother of All Bombs (MOAB) look so like last years model. This is how it works.

"The main destruction is inflicted by an ultrasonic shock wave and an incredibly high temperature," General Ruskin added. "All that is alive merely evaporates."

Despite its destructive qualities, the bomb is "environmentally friendly", said General Rushkin.

An environmentally friendly bomb that evaporates "all that is alive", now endorsed by Al Gore and Lenny diCaprio, is this a great country or what.

PS - As a courtesy to the many in the congregation who do not care, the political commentary will be an afterthought.

This week Hillary Rodman Clinton announced that her solution to the health care crisis is insurance for all. Now if she would just divorce that no good bastard Bill, then Hillary would be the perfect Republican candidate. Hey if Dallas is going Democrat then Hillary can go republican and they would forgive her too.

The Reverend Touchdown™ - Does anyone know what the little green dot on the back of the NFL™ quarterback's helmet means?

Sweet Pick this week is Baylor +16.5 at A&M and the over at .

Scam of the Week™ - Whoever said a watched pot never boils doesn't have gas. The Reverend Tony™ was asked this week "What is love?" I can only paraphrase the 4th century chinese philosopher Sun Hing and say that love is a blonde with a lot of money and big tits and remember that you can buy two of the three with her money.

At Matt's today September birthdays will be celebrated with lunch and dinner performances. The early show is Man of La Mancha with The Reverend Tony™ in the role of Man.

The late show is The Royal South Austin Playas production of Camelot with The Reverend Tony™ as Camel.

Greetings,

The Reverend Touchdown™'s Sweet Pick™ - The only game worth watching Saturday is Florida at LSU. These teams are too good for their coaches.

LSU is favored by 8 and the o/u is 48. TRT says take the under and give the points.

Mas Foosball - OU - Texas weekend in Dallas and you can throw away the record book when these rivals take to the gridiron. Hell yeah, after last week's performances both teams want to throw away their stinkin' record books.

And you can throw away the Turkey Leg Paradigm™ too for the same reason. You don't need to eat no stinkin' turkey leg to get up for this one.

Much dough popping Saturday afternoon and at the final tally one team will have won and be relieved and the other team will be desperate. Such is life it's own self, eh Dan Jenkins.

Scam of the Week - This holiday season anyone who is anyone needs a bodyguard. The Reverend Tony™ has hooked up big time with Blackwater USA to bring you Bodyguards R' US.

October 12, 2007

Greetings,

Wow, college football, was that fun Saturday or what? The Reverend Touchdown™ was perfect again winning none of the bets. Los Tigres not only did not cover the spread but the usually reliable LSU defense gave up just enough points to lose the under too. Quelle fromage.

The Reverend Touchdown™'s Sweet Pick™ - Take Texas Tech minus 8 at home to Texas A&M and way over the 70 which means a 49-21 game or thereabouts. Also take Michael Crabtree to go way over 200 yards receiving. The young man can play.

For a bettor, an interesting series of plays occurred at the end of the OU-Texas game. OU is trying to run out the clock facing fourth and long from the UT 21 with 23 seconds left in the game when Texas calls its last time out. The score is OU 28 Texas 21.

A 38 yard field goal is well within the range of the OU kicker and makes it a two score game. If OU takes another knee, UT takes possession in about the same place, the clock stops and Texas has 20 seconds left to score a touchdown.

UT could block the field goal and run it back for a touchdown but that is highly unlikely with the field goal team that OU has. And I have failed so far to mention that a 3 point field goal makes for a 10 point spread which covers the 9 1/2 points that OU was minus to start the game.

Stoops attempts the field goal and misses so the world remains in balance. OU won the game and UT covered the spread.

Greetings,

Enjoy the full moon. Dearest venerable Mama from the Oklahoma may be at Matt's tonight so approach with caution. She is almost 100 and tends to wander off so please encourage her to.

Off-limit subjects include politics, religion, sex and football which pretty much just leaves cooking and eating on the non-offensive list.

Sport - If you don't already read a British newspaper online, then you should. The Reverend Tony™ recommends The Times of London, in which this comment appeared, Sport shapes our language, whether you play a few shots or flirt with the corridor of uncertainty, by Simon Barnes http://www.timesonline.co.uk/tol/sport/columnists/simon_barnes/article531879.ece

Consequently the password tonight is "Squeaky bum time" and pass it on. Peace, love and understanding, I remain The Reverend Tony™

Politics - Please allow The Reverend Tony™ to be the first to call out Dick "Biggus" Cheney as a flat track bully. And I double dog dare Biggus to remain in the jurisdiction of US for 2 years after he leaves office which can't be soon enough. Ciao bello

November 2, 2007

Greetings,

The World Tour continues in Austin this weekend with the Texas Book Festival, the Day of the Dead, and the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure™.

For the Book Festival, The Reverend Tony™ will be reading from his latest From Lust to Love and Back at 5:30 pm in the Elephant Room, 315 Congress, in the basement.

And don't be afraid to bring along your spirits with you since it is The Day of the Dead too. Unfortunately for all of Austin, Karen Kuykendall is with the spirits now or so said the Austin American Spaceman this morning.

Karen was the songbird of Austin, and a Koock and a Faulk and the kind of person who could put a smile on your face even when crying through the pain from her loss.

The Reverend Tony™ is getting real, real tired of burying people to cancer, the list is way too long already.

So members of the congregation if you are going to die within the next year please die from something other than cancer.

And please make a contribution to the Race for the Cure™ and encourage family and friends who are racing by making a contribution, not much, just a little bit.

Like to encourage Bob Fonseca who is running for Team Cindi Lazzari

http://www.komenaustin.org/site/TR?fr_id=1060&pg=pfind

Sweet Pick of the Week - OU to win and A&M to easily cover 21 because the Aggies can run the football. Maybe not well enough to win but certainly well enough to shorten the game.

After the reading at The Elephant Room, please join The Reverend Tony™ and all of the spirits, namely beer, wine, whiskey, gin and margaritas, at Matt's Famous El Rancho and raise a glass to the dead on high. Peace, love and a little bit of soul, I remain, The Reverend Tony™ Politics - Reason #6 to elect Hillary Clinton as the next president - We should not have been calling her the first lady in the first place. In US, first suggests best and whoever that family is, is certainly not the best just because they won 5-4.

But does not first also suggests more than one as in ""Please allow me to introduce the second lady and my favorite, the third lady.

The Reverend Tony™ recommends calling the person in that position Mr. Clinton or Mrs. Perry and so forth.

Sun Hing once said "From what you sow upon the fields, only 41-46% of the harvest will fall within one standard deviation of the mean."

November 9, 2007

Greetings,

For the multitude of you who did not attend the Elephant Room last Friday for The Reverend Tony™ not reading From Lust to Love and Back, I'm pleased to bring you an excerpt.

"He then realized how much love is like a jury. Once you have to start explaining, you are lost."

Sweet Pick of the Week is officially over or at least never tout an Aggie team again and that includes LSU. Coach Smiles, Coach Gumby and Coach Frown have a combined coaching IQ approaching absolute zero. Let me count the ways.

Beginning with last week's Sweet Pick, The Reverend Tony™ said and I quote "OU to win and A&M to easily cover 21 because the Aggies can run the football. Maybe not well enough to win but certainly well enough to shorten the game"

So Coach Frown begins with some option football picking up 4+ per carry as predicted and then, it was as if Coach Frown thought "Excellent, that's working great, now let's see what won't work" and started passing and not giving the ball to Big Boy Lane who you get real tired of tackling by the 4th quarter.

With the game on the line and 4th down, Coach Gumby at Okie A&M runs a reverse that loses 10, UT ball, touchdown, game tied.

Then with the game on the line again, 3rd down from about the 20, Coach I'm a Man throws an incomplete pass which stops the clock. So when his scholarship kicker from Austin misses the chip shot field goal, wide right, as everyone knew he would, by failing to run on 3rd down and taking seconds off the clock, lets Texas' walk-on kick the game winning field goal at the buzzer.

At Least Coach Smiles got justice and what appears to be all of the good luck that escaped the victims and/or survivors of Hurricane Katrina which is nice even though late.

With that said, UT will cover 6 1/2 piece of cake at home to Texas Tech and over 65 seems sweet too.

RIP Larry Langley, sunrise October 19, 1943, sunset yesterday. Larry was the president of the Travis County Bar Association the same year I was president of the Austin Young Lawyers way back in 1986. He was the kind of man and lawyer we all want to be except that the damn cancer got him too. It figures that the last time I saw him was at a board meeting of the Austin Bar Foundation and he looked good. Adíos a su cuerpo, pero su espíritu permanece

Sorry about last week, forgot to give out The Password which we'll use this week also, Con Fantasma Es Todos, a great one for Day of the Dead which was last Friday.

Peace, lust and margaritas, I remain The Reverend Tony™

Politics - The only choice as our next president.

November 16, 2007

Greetings,

Barry Bonds was indicted this week on 5 felony counts by a federal grand jury. His lawyers predicted that Mr. Bonds would be exonerated on all charges and that he would pay them an incredibly large fee. Pete Rose has set the line at nine.

Sweet Pick of the Week™ - College football is turning out about as predicted which is unpredictable.

Had The Reverend Tony™'s scheme been in place, the regular season would be really heating up. The conference championship games would be the sweet 16 of the playoffs for The National Championship of American Football™ aka TNCOAF™, which may be unpronounceable. see WarWithoutEndAmen.com, Point 7

If your conference does not have a championship game then your conference does not get to play for TNCOAF™.

This means that a Big/Pac 10 team with one loss places behind a Big 12/SEC/ACC team with one loss. The extra game must be rewarded and besides, the conference championship game makes so much money! Money is honey, and you say it ain't so.

We commune tonight at Joe DiMaggio's in The Domain where reservations and a jacket are required. Code Word is 187.

<http://www.joedimaggiosrestaurant.com/>

Please reply by 3pm CST today so the lovely and talented Carol Merrill can make the necessary arrangements or reserve your own at http://www.foodhawk.com/austin/restaurants/details/Joe_DiMaggio_s_Italian_Chophouse/id/844

Tonight's sermon will be "Martini, Shaken or Stirred". Peace, love and happiness, I remain The Reverend Tony™ Politics - If I have to see one more presidential debate before the end of this calendar year, I will join the NRA.

PS - Coming soon at WarWithoutEndAmen.com, Point #8 of The Reverend Tony™'s Ten Point Plan to Save the World and Save The Cheerleaders™, Oh God, Please Save The Cheerleaders™

Point #8 - Nutria, the other mystery meat. Once you have eaten Nutria you will never eat another kind of vermin or rodent again. Now fortified with Niacin.

Thanksgiving

Greetings,

Let us all give thanks for Nutria, the other mystery meat, and all the many ways that you can cook and eat Nutria for the holidays.

The Reverend Tony™ has posted his favorite Nutria recipes on the website at WarWithoutEndAmen.com

And please feel free to send in your own recipe and The Reverend Tony™ will share yours with the assembled multitudes.

If you can't find Nutria at you local grocer or backwater, then just contact The Reverend Tony™ and we will deliver to you, kicking and screaming a genuine pen raised Nutria, ready for you to kill, dress, cook and eat.

And if you order within the next 30 minutes, The Reverend Tony™ will send you a jug of The Reverend Tony™'s Nutriassence™ and a reusable device to inject it into either the Nutria or yourself. Nutriassence™ now has codeine and methamphetamine.

Or try the delectable Heart Healthy "Crock-Pot" Nutria from the kitchens of Chef Philippe Parola Commandeur des Cordon Bleu de France where the Nutria was invented. Chef Philippe includes garlic and brussels spouts then tops with a demi glace, and that is not made up.

<http://www.lacoast.gov/WATERMARKS/2000b-06/3recipe/>

So give everybody you see a big hug and give thanks for all the little creatures even the Nutria. Peace, love and demi glace for everyone, I remain The Reverend Tony™

PS - Coming Friday, movie reviews including Kevin Costner's new epic Dancing with Beowulfs.

November 23, 2007

Greetings,

Movie Reviews - Even though I have not actually seen Dancing with Beowulfs, I can personally vouch that it is the best Kevin Costner movie since Night Shift, in which KC was Frat Boy #2. Beowulf's quick step with Marie Osmond was a delight as was his tango with Donnie.

But the show stopper is Beo and Condi doing the antler dance. How KC got Condi away from her secretary of steaks duties to do the antler dance is way beyond The Reverend Tony™'s comprehension.

The scored board says blood, monster mucus, heads for appetizers, virtual naked Angelina Joile, Anthony Hopkins and Beowulf, and it's rated PG 13. Is this a great country or what? The Reverend Tony™ says take all of the grandchildren give 'em a tub of buttered popcorn and super size that soda, enjoy. 4 stars check it out.

Sweet Pick of the Week - The Aggies are gonna wish they were fried nutria by the end of today as the mighty, mighty Horns cover 5 1/2 big time and go way over 60.

Mississippi v Mississippi State for the Egg Bowl because a football looks like an egg in Mississippi and vice versa. So go with State at home giving 6 1/2 to Mississippi but no way over 48.

Oklahoma A&M v Oklahoma, the bedlam series. My Sooners are favored by 14 up from 11 1/2 because their milker has been cleared to play from a concussion last Saturday. That means he won't last until the 2nd quarter and the Sooners end up with the 3rd stringer at QB. The OK Aggies, hopped up on meth supplied by T. Nose Pickens will cover the spread barely, and over 67.

Finally, PETGWB* has asked The Reverend Tony™ to circulate the vicious rumor and lie that this is not Biggus dressed as the chicken with his Billy Bass in this video, but it is.

Enjoy the full moon weekend. Peace, love and NuBassChik for all, I remain, The Reverend Tony™

<http://youtube.com/watch?v=-uaxadak54I>

November 30, 2007

Greetings,

Sweet Pick of the Week - Horns lose to Aggies, Tigers lose to Hogs and Cowboys lose to Sooners. Armageddon is upon us, all is doom. NOT Jupiter will align with Mars on Saturday and when the dust settles the BCS will be a great big chocolate mess.

This is a good thing for The Reverend Tony™ and the NCAA football tournament scam as more fully described in Point #7 of The Reverend Tony™'s Ten Point Plan to Save the World and Save The Cheerleaders™, Oh God, Please Save The Cheerleaders™. [www.WarWithoutEndAmen.com]

Gift Ideas for the Holidays - #1 with a bullet is the fake fur throw but do not eat any fake fur that was Made in China. Another important safety tip from The Reverend Tony™.

#2 is the Hickory Smoked Honey Ham from Cabela's, the only place online I could find, geaux figure. The Hickory Smoked Honey Ham store in Austin is now closed and hickory smoke does make a difference. Available in Kosher too.

#3 - Gift certificates are ok for men and children, male and female, but not for adult women. Instead get her some jewelry at a store with a generous return/upgrade policy such as Russell Korman, on North Lamar, or Cherebum™ on South Lamar not far from Matt's, both in Austin, Willie.

#4 - A photo of your loved one with bad hair and/or clothes, and you know exactly the photo The Reverend Tony™ is talking about. The time of the leisure suit is a special treasure trove.

Clarification of Websites - The Reverend Tony™ operates 3 websites, Placibox.com, TheReverendTony.com and WarWithoutEndAmen.com.

Placibox.com is devoted to the scandalous promotion of PlaciBox©™, the Magenta pill, It Cures Everything!!! Regrettably things have not gone well so far for PlaciBox©™, because of unforeseen delivery issues so to speak.

In order to include every pharmaceutical product known to man, The Reverend Tony™'s laboratories in Crawford, Nigeria have been unable, so far and I repeat so far, to reduce the size of the PlaciBox©™ pill to much under the size of an american football.

And as PlaciBox©™ is a suppository, this makes taking two PlaciBox©™ each morning with a hearty breakfast almost impossible unless you are French, mais oui.

TheReverendTony.com remains home to Scam of the Week™ and the Password for Matt's El Rancho, The ER and soon to add Dimaggio's.

TheReverendTony.com is also the only place to read about The Escape from the Storm, The Reverend Tony™ and Lady Claire being on the next to last plane out of New Orleans before Katrina hit, having spent the weekend before the storm eating our way through New Orleans for Lady B's birthday celebration.

We had the last suppers at the Chef's Table at Commander's Palace, Napoleon's and Galatoires before they were shut down by that tragedy. It still hurts to remember what's been lost and to know that nothing is being done to return the refugees to their homes which is just wrong.

Which leads illogically to WarWithoutEndAmen.com, where you can learn about The Reverend Tony™'s Ten Point Plan to Save the World and Save The Cheerleaders™, Oh God, Please Save The Cheerleaders™.

POINT #1 - End the War Without End, Amen™

POINT #2 - Immigration

POINT #3 - Health Care

POINT #4 - Energy Policy

POINT #5 - Texas

POINT #6 - Pardon Scooter Libby

POINT #7 - NCAA Football

POINT #8 - World Hunger

POINT #9 - The Economy (coming December 7)

POINT #10- The Dubai Solution - Save the Cheerleaders™ (coming December 14)

Password tonight is "If I can I will." Peace, love and civilization, I remain The Reverend Tony™

Politics

President Numnutz and his secretary of steaks Condi Rice, the san francisco treat, hosted a peace conference this week apparently just to get rid of the leftovers from Thanksgiving.

If Numnutz and Rice really wanted peace, and they don't but just if, then he could start by asking everyone in every place where you need the freedom to carry a gun, like in Baghdad or Miami/Dade County, to for just one day beginning at noon GMT, December 8, 2007, the next new moon, to not kill anyone else.

If everyone can keep from killing anyone else for one day then you can do it for one week, then one month until one day soon there will be no more killing and everyone can feast on Hickory Smoked Honey Ham and get ready for the NCAA Football tournament. Now that's a Reverend Tony holiday.

December 7, 2007

Greetings,

As Sun Hing once said "You can fool all of the people some of the time and some of the people all of the time but I won't get fooled again, mofo."

NCAA Football - As predicted in this screed last week, the college football season ended up a great big chocolate mess and there is much rejoicing.

If The Reverend Tony™'s scheme were in place this year, then LSU, Ohio State, Oklahoma, USC, Virginia Tech and West Virginia would be in the Great 8 already just waiting for two play-in games on December 15 among Hawaii, UCF, Birgham Young and the winner of Bowling Green v. Troy game tomorrow. These five teams won the championship of the five other BCS conferences that did not have to play-in. More on that later in the screed.

Let's pick Hawaii and Bowling Green to round out the Great 8. Now the lovely Carol Merrill will draw teams from the hat as follows:

LSU - Bowling Green, January 1 Cotton Bowl

WVA - OSU, January 1 Orange Bowl

Va Tech - Hawaii, January 2 Fiesta Bowl

USC - OU, January 2 Rose Bowl

The Final Four begins in New Orleans on Wednesday January 9 with the first semi-final between the January 1 winners then on January 10 between the January 2 winners with the Finals on Monday night, January 14.

Everyone else would play in the remaining bowl games with the 6 conferences winning the most bowl games to receive the 6 byes into the Great 8 next year.

That would be a whole lot of fun and make a bunch of money for everyone which is what America is all about.

Politics

"I shall not seek, and I will not accept the nomination of my party for another term as your President." Lyndon Baines Johnson, March 31, 1968. On rare occasions a politician exhibits intelligence and bravery as EL BJ did then.

Therefore, tonight at Matt's Famous El Rancho about 2 margs past the hour, The Reverend Tony™ will announce that he will not seek and will not accept the nomination of any party as your President but will accept campaign contributions in cash only.

All funds received will be used to subvert the credibility of the Numnutz administration. Peace, love always, I remain The Reverend Tony™

Greetings,

Cats in motion tend to remain in motion while cats at rest will remain at rest until dinner. Sun Hing, Jodi Foster is Out of the closet, Ike Turner is Out of time and the George Mitchell report is Way Out of line, a real life Spanish Inquisition. Guilty until proven innocent.

To set the record straight, steroids are a usual and customary treatment for muscle injuries and what athlete has not had a muscle injury? Then you are not an athlete.

The Reverend Tony™ can vouch from personal experience, that steroids will cause acne and a penis to shrink, neither of which is very becoming unless you are French.

The World Tour™ continues with a London derby this Sunday morning on Fox Sports Channel when my Arsenal play host to Chelski. If you are not a football fan yet, please watch the first half and then tell The Reverend Tony™ you are not hooked.

Not to worry if you don't know what's going on, The Reverend Tony™ hasn't figured out ballet either but it is most fun to enjoy. All the leaping about and the way they can stop in mid-air, especially the male ballerinas like Nuryev, Ballanchine, and Ngozi.

So for just a bit, watch these football fellows perform and marvel and what they are doing even if you might not quite understand what it is.

Tonight at Matt's El Rancho, Condi Rice, the San Francisco treat, will demonstrate how to boil water for world peas. Password is either Cher or Madonna. Peace, love, I remain The Reverend Tony™ Politics - The Reverend Tony™ has no comment, their actions speaking much louder than any words.

Greetings,

Greetings,

How about Mars and the Full Moon on the solstice last Sunday night, especially considering that a bright star played an impotent supporting role in the birth of the fellow whose birth, life and death (BLD) we celebrated last week. The Reverend Tony™ would prefer a BLT, birth, life and tomato.

Thanks to all of you who did not send compliments about last week's screed, specially Twass the Last Matt' before Christmas, which will be coming to your local theatre next holiday season. I can't tell you how much each and every one meant to me individually and as a virtual person.

Enough film was shot to incriminate all of the usual suspects not present and then some what with digital technology and all. Not to worry though because Associate producerships are still available, each with access to the editing room, if you catch my drift.

If interested please send a €100,000 nonrefundable deposit payable to Bush/Cheney 2008, c/o Carmine Ngozi, Box BR549, Crawford, Dubai, along with a postage paid, pre-addressed envelope and a canceled check or deposit for the account upon which you wish us to make future drafts. Merci beaucoup.

As 2007 draws to a close, ours anyway since the chinese year of the boar continues until February 6, 2008 when the Year of the Rat begins, consider something that Sun Hing said a long time ago in a place far away, "One thing you know for certain is that you'll never know."

Peace, love and hug someone real good to celebrate the New Year, I remain The Reverend Tony™

Password tonight for Matt's "Famous" El Rancho is Food Bank and please send a little checky to your local and be sure to post it before 12-31-2007 so you can claim the deduction on this year's 1040.

Politics re: Bush/Cheney 2008, see above

"Hey Reverend Tony™, doesn't the 22nd amendment to the Constitution limit the president to just two terms?" asked Jimmy, a Calumet middle school student.

"That's right Jimmy, and you go strait to the head of the class."

The 22nd Amendment does prevent, thankfully, George and Dick from serving another term, but would not prevent Laura Bush and Lynn Cheney from the offices. The women would be a definite improvement over their men.

In the general election, Laura v Hillary is a TKO in the first for our First Lady Laura who is HOT for an older lady.

And Laura has already shown a willingness bordering on enthusiasm for cosmetic surgery which is Point 3 of The Reverend Tony™'s Ten Point Plan to Save the World and Save The Cheerleaders™, Oh God, Please Save The Cheerleaders™.

see WorldWithoutEndAmen.com

Point #9 - The Economy

The Reverend Tony™ wants to make one thing perfectly clear to each and every one of you who is and have been making shit-piles™ of money off of President's Numnutz' War of Terror. Rest assured that each and every one of you will continue to make shit-piles™ of money under the regime of The Reverend Tony™ so long as you make stuff that doesn't blows things up real good.

Instead you can move to Houston and take up cosmetic surgery because we will be needing a lot more once Point #3 becomes law.

And if you need any help finding a home in Houston or the surrounding cesspool, please contact a dear and personal friend of The Reverend Tony™ who goes by the handle of Tom "Boy" DeLay at the real estate agency of DeLay, Ngozi and Sons, Sugarland, Texas.

TomBoy will find you a bigass house that will cost you a fortune to cool in the summer which lasts from the beginning of February until the middle of January of the next year.

Call TomBoy 24/7 at 1-666-BR549XX and tell him that The Reverend Tony™ sent you and everything will be alright.

Heureuse et prospère nouvelle année, Je reste, Le Reverend Toné Toné
