Polyticks - The face of a City should never ever be the Chief of Police (COP) such as Austin's Art Acevedo in the aftermath of the SXSW tragedy last week and this week's shooting of another Negro.

Three have now died from SXSW when a drunk driver being chased by a patrol car, drove through a barrier into a crowd outside The Mohawk which on Red River.

How could APD chase a suspected drunk driver with the crowds of SXSW? What were they thinking as the cost to the community of chasing a drunk driver into an accident far outweighs the benefit of arresting another drunk driver. PS - The chase began on the east side of IH-35 which is blocks away and APD resumed the chase at least once.

Then Tuesday APD escalated a domestic disturbance into a shoot to kill of another Negro who APD thought was holding a semiautomatic pistol which turned out to be a BB pistol which another Negro say he had dropped before being shot at three times which is shoot to kill.

As usual and always the officer was "in fear of his life" when he shot according to Chief Acevedo who now has no comment because of "the ongoing investigation" which should always be his comment instead of holding a press conference.

Light, sweet crude settled at $99.43 up $1.23, as natural gas steadies at $4.369. The Euro is down to $1.3780.
