

Scam of the Week™

June 6, 2014, Austin, TX

World Tour continues 70 years ago on D-Day when our fathers kicked their ass, big time, for the last time, good Lord willing and the creek don't rise!!!

Joke of the Week™ - Wine is to women as . . . visit The Reverend Tony™ for the Joke of the Week™.

Fútbol - The 2014 FIFA World Cup Brazil™ begins next Thursday with Brazil and Croatia at Sao Paolo under a full moon. Sun Hing say "Cra! Cra! Cra!"

USA last match before the tournament is tomorrow with Nigeria from Groupo F so it is time to get your caxirola on.

Scam of the Week™ - Uber launched a ride-share/chauffeur app for Austin with a two minute spot on the nightly news which included 12 mentions of "Uber" during said two minutes spot. 12 does not include "Uber" in the caption for almost the entire two minutes. Impressive numbers even for an informercial.

Password tonight is "50-amp fuse". Peace, love and margaritas, I remain The Reverend Tony™.

Polyticks - Water rates are going up not because Austinettes are using less water but because of The Drought™ as Lakes Travis and Buchanan are at 38% capacity. According to Jim Spencer it would take 71 days of rain like Memorial Day Monday to fill both to 100%.

The Drought™ = Water Treatment Plant 3 does not operate because no water in Lake Travis to treat = no revenue = no debt service on the bond issue floated to pay for construction = water rate increase to pay the debt service. Is this great government or what?

Light, sweet crude settled at $102.48 down $1.10, as natural gas rises 3.11% to $4.701. The €uro is up a bit to $1.3658.

1 dead this week in The War Without End, Amen™ = 23 for the year.
