The Reverend Tony™ is proud to announce that within days of the last posting, Ngozi Okonjo-Iweala, the Finance Minister of Nigeria, agreed to invest $75,000,000.00 in PlaciBox©™, the Magenta pill, It Cures Everything!!! which is sweet. All Mr. Ngozi needs to complete the transaction is a bank account number and bank routing number.

As an incentive, The Reverend Tony™ will give a free*, lifetime supply of PlaciBox©™, the Magenta pill, It Cures Everything!!! to the first person who emails The Reverend Tony™ with your available bank account and bank routing numbers. Now that is what The Reverend Tony™ calls a deal.

Finally during this busy holiday season and before you venture out on the highway, The Reverend Tony™ recommends within the hour before you depart that you consume four to six mixed drinks, glasses of wine, beers or any combination thereof. Then when the arresting officer pulls you over, just tell the officer that you “know The Reverend Tony™” and everything will be fine. Onward, The Reverend Tony™, Austin, Texas yawl.

Not including $19.95 per month shipping and handling.*
